

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

The

Living Church Annual

MILWAUKEE, ADVENT, 1906.26th Consecutive Year.

EDITORIAL.

The Church has passed another normal year. Its history is recorded in the cyclopædia section of the ANNUAL, where it is intended that every important event apart from routine work shall find mention. It would be difficult to over-estimate the historical value of that section of the publication. Exceptional care is taken to make the record therein given thoroughly trustworthy, since it is realized that historians of future years are likely to be guided largely by the facts herein presented.

In the year's statistics there is room neither for unalloyed optimism nor indiscriminating pessimism. The increase in communicants continues at two per cent.—in reality nearly $2\frac{1}{2}$ —and varies little from year to year. This year the net gain is 19,228; last year it was 19,203. We cannot think that we ought ever to be satisfied with this normal two per cent. annual increase. At the same time the tendency during recent years has been to restrict the interpretation of who are communicants much more closely than formerly. This is due in large measure to the fact that diocesan assessments and general missionary apportionments are so largely based upon the communicant rolls, thus leading many rectors to cut the rolls down to a minimum basis. So various are the interpretations of different clergymen as to who should be counted as communicants, that new rectors frequently erase hundreds of names from their predecessor's rolls at one sitting, and never does a year pass that some dioceses do not appear in the tables charged with net decrease in communicants, to be accounted for by such sweeping reductions in parish rolls. What to do with lapsed communicants, of whom thousands are yearly dropped from our records without compunction, is a very serious problem, and but little progress is made from year to year in its solution. It might well be made the subject for serious consideration of the authorities in the Church.

A gain of 67 clergy within the United States and 12 within the foreign field is encouraging, but as the home parishes and missions are increased by 347, it cannot be doubted that the insufficiency of provision for the normal expansion of our work continues to increase rather than to decrease. The gain in clergy at home during the preceding year was 70. We also gain 228 in lay readers against a gain of only 75 last year, thus showing that this make-shift for an insufficient clergy supply is gaining faster than are the clergy themselves. Candidates for orders are fewer than a year ago—394 as compared with 414—but postulants have increased from 322 to 333.

Infant baptisms, the decline of which has long been a matter for foreboding in the Church, have this year struck high water mark, the number reaching 51,606. In reality there are considerably more, since each year a number of baptisms are reported as "unclassified," and in some of the dioceses only the total number of baptized is reported without discrimination between infants and adults. We have this year 2,302 unclassified baptisms as compared with 2,168 last year; but the ratio of such to the total number of baptisms is regularly so uniform—about $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of the whole—that comparisons between years are not materially affected. The largest number of infant baptisms hitherto reported in a year was in 1893, when there were 50,885, and it is to be observed that that number represented a ratio of one infant baptism to every 11 communicants, while the present numbers give one only to 16 communicants. Even with the total gain therefore it is apparent that we have not passed beyond the necessity for anxiety as to the large decline in the spiritual birth rate; while the fact that this year we report a loss of 400 Sunday School children shows, as well, that we are not nearly holding our own in what should be the normal element in the growth of the Church. But the increase in confirmations within the year, 4,500, is a gain of nine per cent. on the whole number, being far greater than the ratio of gain either in baptisms or in communicants. It is to the influx of baptized people from other religious bodies that we owe this large gain in confirmations; but a large part of that gain is immediately offset by the depreciation of the communicant list through lapses. Cannot something be done to stay this enormous annual loss? The constant moving about of the people, particularly in the cities, makes it inevitable that parochial variations will be very considerable; but a proper system of parish visiting would greatly reduce the number of those who remove without the knowledge of the parochial clergy, and a proper system of transfers to other parishes and of follow-up letters would largely reduce the number lost from one set of parishes by removals and not added correspondingly to the rolls of other parishes. If business houses acquiesced in the loss of customers as easily as do many of the clergy in the loss of communicants, there would be a good many new business failures each year to be recorded by Dun and Bradstreet. This, with the reduced ratio of infant baptisms, is the weak spot in the work of the Church. What prophet will arise to suggest a cure?

IN THE COMMUNICANT LISTS there are the usual variations from large gain to apparent loss. The latter we may say, as in past years, is usually on the surface only and the usual attempt has been made to account for it in specific instances. As is always anticipated, the greatest variation is shown in the missionary districts where numbers taken as a basis for figuring percentages are small. That the Philippine Islands show the phenomenal increase of 40 per cent., requires only that 100 be added to the figures of last year, as was the case. The phenomenal gain of 27 per cent. in Spokane should be compared with the decrease of 20 per cent. for the same district last year. Arizona reports a gain of 21 per cent. against a loss of 1 per cent. last year, while it should be said that the recorded gain of 20 per cent. in Alaska is the same 20 per cent. reported last year. No new figures being received, the figures were taken from last year's report, and it was a slip of the pen to report an increase for that district. A gain of 16 per cent. for Salt Lake shows good progress, and that of 15 per cent for Olympia, together with 16 per cent. for the same district last year, indicates that the depletion of dioceses further east by reason of removals to the Pacific coast, as will be mentioned below, is not without its corresponding gain in those localities. Laramie shows a gain of 11 per cent., while last year there was a loss of 1 per cent. The decrease of 8 per cent. in Salina is to be compared with a gain of 20 per cent. last year, and it should be explained that the fluctuations in statistics from Salina are greater than those from almost any other field; we trust that they may gradually be lessened as more permanent conditions are developed.

In the organized dioceses we look for fewer marked fluctuations. The phenomenal gain of 20 per cent. in the communicant list is reported by Los Angeles. Very likely this in part is due to persons removing to that diocese from San Francisco and nearby places in the diocese of California on account of the earthquake and fire destruction. Arkansas comes second in percentage of increase with 14 per cent., thus perhaps vindicating the wisdom of expending large amounts of missionary money in organized dioceses where good use of it is made, the appropriation for that field being considerably more than the average. Gains of 8 per cent. are shown in Oregon and in South Carolina; the former due in large part to that same movement of population to the Pacific coast which has added so largely to the number reported in Olympia. Indeed, Olympia, though a missionary district, reports nearly 50 per cent. more communicants than does Oregon, an organized diocese of several years standing.

Seven per cent. is the very satisfactory ratio of gains reported in Chicago, Florida, Michigan, Minnesota, and Ohio; 6 per cent. in Easton and Kentucky; and 5 per cent. in Central Pennsylvania, Delaware, Fond du Lac, and Newark. For New York we are obliged to use the figures of last year, thus showing neither increase nor decrease in the communicant list, by reason of the change of time in holding the convention, and accordingly in reports, from September to November. It is impossible for dioceses having November conventions to close their statistics early enough to enable them to appear in the next issue of the Annual, and the statistics reported annually in New York in November will, therefore, be reported hereafter in the ANNUAL a year later.

Glancing through the dioceses severally, as we are accustomed to do in order to explain variations of note, we are enabled to explain from time to time what might otherwise be misleading.

In reporting a prosperous year for California it should be borne in mind that Californian statistics are gathered in January, so that the year of the earthquake is not included in these figures. We shall not be able to anticipate nearly so favorable a showing for next year.

In Colorado, where reports are very deficient, the Bishop authorizes us to place the present number of communicants at approximately 6,000, which is indeed a decrease of 5 per cent. as compared with the figures of last year, but which is less than the decrease as it would stand if the reports in the journal were taken without further editing. We learn with pleasure that a committee has been appointed to prepare statistical tables for this diocese next year, and we trust to be able to obtain more satisfactory returns thereby.

The Bishop of Dallas believes that the decrease of 1 per cent. in the communicant list is to be accounted for by deficient reports "so as to escape a raise in assessment," and that the number of communicants in the diocese is really much larger than is reported.

The Long Island journal adds the various parochial reports, making no allowance for several blanks, and we have not been able to obtain estimates by which to supply that deficiency.

Maryland shows a decrease of 962 or 4 per cent. The journal lacks the tabulated summary that would enable us to discover what omissions there may be. The Bishop believes that there really has been an increase of 750 during the year, but that this has been more than offset by carelessness in giving too large totals in former years. (

Mississippi reports a decrease which the Bishop attributes to the usual causes of pruning lists and failures to report. He has devised a new system of reports which he thinks will result in more accurate statistics in future.

Nebraska reports a decrease of 94 communicants. The Bishop Coadjutor advises us that during the past two years 400 communicants have removed from that diocese to the Puget Sound region alone, one-third of whom have located in the diocese of Oregon, and that this is in addition to other large removals from the state. The average of confirmations, he states in his annual address, moreover, is less than usual, partly by reason of a number of clerical vacancies and partly because of removals, as stated. Indeed all of the trans-Missouri states are feeling this new migration to the farther West. Many counties have been seriously depleted in population, and it is said that in the year 1905 fully 35,000 people left Iowa in search of newer countries and cheaper lands. All these facts militate seriously against the statistics of the Church in those regions, and unhappily a large number of communicants are lost sight of altogether, thus preventing the proper offset to those losses by corresponding gains in the dioceses of the Pacific coast to which they so largely remove.

A like movement is a continual drain upon the statistics and strength of the Church in New England. This accounts for a loss of 36 in the number of communicants in New Hampshire. Here also there has been the evil of large reductions of parochial lists by incoming rectors, one of whom cut off more than 100 names, many of which could probably have been located, we are informed, if time had been given to that thorough work whereby alone such location could be secured.

Pittsburgh is, in its journal, a shining example of how statistics ought not to be compiled. In the tabulated statement of parochial reports (pages 206, 207) there are separate columns for communicants "recorded" and "canonical." The intention of the discrimination is to show in the former column the whole number of potential communicants and in the latter the number actually receiving the Holy Communion with some degree of regularity. No doubt there is good reason for this discrimination; but when we find that if, perchance, a rector of a parish has reported a given number for one column and none for the other, it would seem as though the secretary in compiling statistics would carry that number from the one column to the other. On the contrary we find two instances in which are reported parishes with communicants "recorded" and none as "canonical"; and on the other hand, six instances where we find "canonical" communicants with none "recorded"! When to this we add that one of the largest parishes in the diocese, Trinity, Pittsburgh, with 943 communicants reported as "canonical" has none reported as "recorded," we are able to discover what are some of the reasons why the official report shows, as it does, a very large decrease as compared with last year. Correcting the table as best we may by transferring from the one column to the other, enables us to add 1,480 to the table of "recorded" communicants, and even then there are five blanks in both columns which we are unable to supply. By this necessary editing we are able to change the officially reported decrease of 1,048 in the diocese of Pittsburgh to a gain of 432.

For Rhode Island we are obliged to record a decrease of 108, and that after making allowance for two parishes that failed to report for the diocesan journal. This loss is accounted for, as so frequently, by revision of parochial lists. Grace Church, Providence, reports 159 less than last year, and Trinity Church, Newport, 144 less. Notwithstanding this, the Bishop says, and no doubt truly, that there is a real increase, and states that the Church is credited with such increase in the report of the field agent of the Federation of Churches.

The loss of 75 in Tennessee is similarly misleading, 237 communicants having been dropped from the roll of Calvary Church, Memphis, by the departing rector, and 62 having been dropped by the incoming rector of Christ Church, Nashville.

It is not strange that with such variations we must repeat the caution that it is always unjust to gauge the comparative advance of the Church in different fields by the statistics of a single year. Only by adding reported gains and deducting losses for periods of not less than five and preferably ten years may it be assumed that common ground can be even approximately reached. Moreover, equal earnestness of work produces very different results in different fields according to whether the prevailing tides of population are toward emigration or immigration, and what is the character of the immigration. The common assumption that missionary efficiency is to be gauged by statistical results is itself a false one.

So we present to the Church the year's tables with apologies for their incompleteness but not without having made serious efforts to reduce anomalies to a minimum. We should be glad if we might anticipate entering some time upon a more favorable era than that of a two per cent. annual increase.

Notes on the Kalendar.

FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD 1906.

The Lectionary in the accompanying tables is that adopted at the General Convention of 1886, being the only one now authorized. The "Table of Lessons for the Forty Days of Lent, and for the Rogation and Ember Days, which may be used in place of those appointed in the Calendar," is printed in italics through each of the above seasons. The alternate second lessons printed in italics for each Sunday evening, are in accordance with the following direction, placed in the Prayer Book by the General Convention of 1883:

"At Evening Prayer on Sunday, the Minister may read the Lesson from the Gospels appointed for that day of the Month, in place of the Second Lesson for the Sunday."

The following rules are also in force: "If in any Church upon a Sunday or Holy Day, both Morning and Evening Prayer be not said, the Minister may read the Lessons appointed for Morning or Evening Prayer."

"Upon any day for which no Proper Lessons are provided, the Lessons appointed in the Calendar for any day in the same week may be read in place of the Lessons for the Day."

Condensed Postal Guide.

DOMESTIC MAIL MATTER.

Domestic mail matter includes all matter deposited in the mails for local delivery, or for transmission from one place to another within the United States, or to or from or between the possessions of the United States.

Porto Rico and Hawaii are included in the term "United States." The Philippine Archipelago, Guam, Tutuila (including all adjacent islands of the Samoan group, which are possessions of the United States), and the Canal Zone are included in the term "Possessions of the United States." The term "Canal Zone" includes all the territory purchased from Panama, embracing the "Canal Zone" proper and the islands in the Bay of Panama, named Perico, Naos, Culebra, and Flamenco.

Domestic rates of postage also apply to mail matter sent from the United States to Canada, Mexico, Cuba, and the United States postal agency at Shanghai, China.

CLASSIFICATION AND POSTAGE RATES.

Domestic mail matter is divided into four classes:

First Class.—Rate, 2 cents for each ounce or fraction. Limit of weight 4 pounds. United States postal cards, 1 cent each; post cards, 1 cent each.

Includes: Letters, United States postal cards, post cards manufactured by private persons (see Sec. 7), all matter sealed or otherwise closed against inspection and all matter wholly or partly in writing, whether sealed or unsealed.

Note.—Typewriting and carbon and letterpress copies thereof are written matter and subject to the first-class rate. A printed communication having the character of actual personal correspondence is regarded as a letter.

Second Class.—Unsealed. Rate, 1 cent for each 4 ounces or fraction. Full prepayment required. No limit of weight.

This is the rate which applies to newspapers and other periodical publications bearing the printed statement "Entered at the postoffice as second-class matter," etc., when they are mailed by the public.

The same when mailed by Publishers or Newsdealers (under certain conditions) are charged in bulk at 1 cent per pound.

Third Class.—Unsealed. Rate 1 cent for each 2 ounces or fraction. Full prepayment required. Limit of weight 4 pounds, except it be a single book.

Includes: Books, newspapers and periodicals not admitted to the second class, circulars, miscellaneous printed matter on paper not having the nature of personal correspondence, and proof sheets, corrected proof sheets, and manuscript copy accompanying the same, and all matter in point print or raised characters used by the blind.

Fourth Class.—Unsealed. Rate, 1 cent for each ounce or fraction, except seeds, bulbs, roots, scions, and plants which are 1 cent for each 2 ounces or fraction. Full prepayment required. Limit of weight, 4 pounds.

Includes: All mailable matter not embraced in the first, second, and third classes.

PERMISSIBLE ADDITIONS TO ORIGINAL MATTER.

ADDITIONS TO SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

1. On the wrapper, or the matter itself, there may be written or printed (1) the name and address of the sender, preceded by the word "from"; (2) the name and address of the person to whom sent; (3) the words "sample copy" or "marked copy" or both; as the case may be.

2. On the matter itself the sender may (1) place all that is permitted on the wrapper; correct typographical errors in the text; designate by marks, not by words, a word or passage in the text to which it is desired to call attention.

3. Other writing will subject the package to the first-class rate.

4. To be entitled to the transient second-class rate, copies of newspapers or periodical publications must be complete. Partial or incomplete copies are third-class matter.

ADDITIONS TO THIRD-CLASS MATTER.

5. On the wrapper, envelope, or the tag or label attached thereto, or upon the matter itself, there may be written or printed the name, occupation, and residence or business address of the sender, preceded by the word "from"; there may also be printed on the wrapper, envelope or the tag or label attached thereto any matter mailable as third class, but there must be left on the address side a space sufficient for a legible address, postmark, and the necessary postage stamps.

6. The words "please send out," or "post up," or other similar directions or requests not a part of the address, nor necessary to effect delivery, may not be written upon the wrapper of third-class matter or upon the matter itself without subjecting it to postage at the letter rate.

7. On the matter itself the sender may place all that is permitted on the wrapper, and may make marks other than by written or printed words to call attention to any word or passage in the text, and may correct any typographical errors. There may also be written or printed upon the blank leaves of any book, or upon any photograph, or other matter of the third class, a simple manuscript dedication or inscription not of the nature of personal correspondence. A serial number written or impressed upon third-class matter does not affect its classification.

8. Written designation of contents, such as "book," "printed matter," "photo," is permissible upon the wrapper of mail matter of the third class.

9. Inclosures.—A single card bearing the written name and address of the sender, or an envelope bearing a written or printed name and address of the sender may be inclosed with a circular, catalogue or other third-class matter without affecting the classification thereof.

10. Public library books otherwise mailable at the third-class rate, may bear any printed or written mark which may reasonably be construed as a necessary inscription for the purpose of a permanent library record.

11. Additional imprinting by hand stamp, upon third-class matter will not affect its classification as such except when the added matter is in itself personal or converts the original matter into a personal communication; but when such appears to be the fact, the presentation at one time at the postoffice window or other depository designated by the postmaster of not less than 20 perfectly identical copies separately addressed and unsealed will be sufficient evidence of impersonal character to entitle such matter to the third-class rate.

12. Corrections in proof sheets include the alteration of the text and insertion of new matter, as well as the correction of typographical and other errors. Includes also marginal instructions to the printer necessary to the correction of the matter or its proper appearance in print. Part of an article may be entirely rewritten if that be necessary for correction. Corrections must be upon the margin of or attached to the proof sheets. Manuscript of one article cannot be enclosed with proof or corrected proof sheets of another except at the first-class rate.

ADDITIONS TO FOURTH-CLASS MATTER.

13. On the wrapper, envelope, tag, or label in addition to the name and address of the addressee, there may be written or printed the name, occupation, and residence, or business address of the sender preceded by the word "from," as well as any marks, numbers, names, or letters for the purpose of description, and any printed matter which is not in the nature of personal correspondence. On the address side or face of the package there must be left a space sufficient for a legible address, postmark, and the necessary postage stamps.

14. On the matter itself, or upon the tag or label attached thereto, may be written or printed any matter authorized to be placed on the wrapper.

15. Written designation of contents, such as "samples," "candy," "cigars," are permissible upon the wrapper of mail matter of the fourth class.

16. Inclosures—With a package of fourth-class matter, prepaid at the proper rate for that class, the sender may inclose any mailable matter of the third class. A single card bearing the written name of the sender and such inscriptions as "Merry Christmas," "Happy New Year," "With Best Wishes," etc., may also be inclosed with fourth-class matter without affecting its classification.

DROP LETTERS.

1. A "drop" letter is one addressed for delivery at the office where mailed.

2. Drop letters mailed at letter-carrier offices, or at offices which are not letter-carrier offices if rural free delivery has been established and the persons addressed can be served by rural free-delivery carriers, are subject to postage at the rate of 2 cents for each ounce or fraction thereof.

3. When mailed for delivery at postoffices where the letter-carrier service is not established, or at offices where the patrons cannot be served by rural free-delivery carriers, the rate is 1 cent for each ounce or fraction thereof.

4. There is no drop rate on mail matter other than letters.

5. A request upon a drop letter for its return to the writer at some other postoffice, if unclaimed, cannot be respected unless it has been prepaid with one full rate (2 cents) of postage.

6. Letters mailed at a postoffice for delivery to patrons thereof by star-route carrier, and those deposited for mailing in boxes along a star-route for collection by such carrier, are subject to postage at the rate of 2 cents an ounce or fraction thereof.

UNITED STATES POSTAL CARDS.

1. United States Government postal cards are entitled to all the privileges of letters except that of return to the sender when undeliverable.

2. They must not bear any printing or writing on the address side other than the name and address of the addressee and such ordinary index marks as the sender may employ to identify the correspondent.

3. A postal card with a statement of account written thereon, or a legal notice that taxes are due, or about to become due, may be transmitted in the mails when such statement or notice does not contain anything reflecting injuriously upon the conduct or character of a person, or a threat of any kind, or any other matter forbidden by law.

POST CARDS (PRIVATE MAILING CARDS).

Note—Any cards issued by private persons bearing on the address side the words "United States," or "United States of America," in similitude of the regular United States postal cards, are unmailable at any rate of postage.

1. Post cards manufactured by private parties bearing either written or printed messages are transmissible in the domestic mails prepaid 1 cent and in the mails of the Postal Union prepaid 2 cents each, by stamps affixed, when they conform to the following conditions:

2. Each card must be an unfolded piece of cardboard substantially of the quality and weight of paper used in the Government postal card and must not be larger in size than 3 9-16 by 5 9-16 inches, nor smaller than 2 15-16 by 4 1/4 inches.

3. The cards may be of any color which does not interfere with the legible address and postmark. Each card must bear the words "Post Card" at the top of the address side, unobstructed by any other matter; said words to be placed thereon in conspicuous letters in such manner as not to interfere with a perfectly distinct address and postmark.

4. Advertisements and illustrations in any color may be printed upon either or both sides of a post card, but the same when on the face must not interfere with a perfectly distinct address and postmark.

5. Post cards prepared by printers for sale should bear in the upper right hand corner of the face in an oblong diagram the words "Place postage stamp here," and across the bottom the words, "This side for the address."

6. Cards bearing the words "Post card," but which do not conform to the conditions mentioned, are chargeable with postage according to the character of the message—at the letter rate if wholly or partly in writing or the third-class rate if entirely in print.

7. A single hole, not exceeding 5-16 of an inch in diameter, may be punched for filing purposes in post cards conforming to the above conditions.

8. Post cards may be remailed to the same addressee upon a new prepayment of 1 cent postage.

9. Folded advertising cards and other matter entirely in print, arranged with a detachable part bearing on the inner side the words "Post Card" and intended to be used as such in making reply, are mailable as third-class matter.

UNMAILABLE MATTER.

Unmailable domestic matter; that is, matter which is prohibited admission to the mails under any circumstances, includes:

1. All matter illegibly, incorrectly, or insufficiently addressed.

2. All transient second-class matter and all matter of the third and fourth classes not wholly prepaid; and letters and other first-class matter not prepaid one full rate—2 cents.

3. All first-class, third-class (except a single book), and fourth-class matter weighing over 4 pounds.

4. All matter harmful in its nature, as poisons, explosive or inflammable articles, live or dead (but not stuffed) animals (see par. 8, sec. 13) and reptiles, fruits or vegetables liable to decomposition, guano, or any article exhaling a bad odor, vinous, spirituous or malt liquors, and liquids liable to explosion, spontaneous combustion, or igniting by shock or jar, such as kerosene oil, naphtha, benzine, etc.

5. All obscene, lewd, or lascivious matter, and every article or thing intended, designed, or adapted for any indecent or immoral purpose, or for the prevention of conception or procuring abortion.

6. All matter bearing upon the outside cover or wrapper or upon its face any delineations, epithets, terms, or language of an indecent, lewd, lascivious, obscene, libelous, scurrilous, defamatory or threatening character, or calculated by the terms or manner or style of display and obviously intended to reflect injuriously upon the character of another.

7. All matter concerning any lottery, so-called gift concert, or other enterprise of chance, or concerning schemes devised for the purpose of obtaining money or property under false pretenses.

RETURN OF MAIL MATTER.

1. The only kind of domestic mail matter that is returnable to the sender without additional postage for such service, when undeliverable, is letters and other first-class matter prepaid one full rate (2 cents); official matter mailed under penalty envelope or frank, and double postal cards, but not single postal cards or post cards (private mailing cards).

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Address.—Mail matter should be addressed legibly and completely. The name of the addressee, the post-office, and the State must be given. If the addressee resides in a city having free delivery, the house number and street, or the post-office box, if known, should be given. If the addressee resides in a rural free-delivery route, the number of the route, if known, should be given. If the matter is intended for delivery through the general delivery at the post-office, the words "General Delivery" should be added.

To secure return in case of non-delivery because of misdirection, insufficient payment of postage, or other causes, the sender's name should be written or printed in the upper left-hand corner of the mail matter.

Postage stamps should be placed upon the upper right-hand corner of the address side of all mail matter, care being taken that they are securely affixed.

Advertised letters.—All mail matter advertised as non-delivered is subject by law to a charge of 1 cent in addition to the regular postage.

Complaints.—All complaints regarding the service should be addressed to the postmaster, and whenever possible they should be accompanied with the envelope or wrapper of the piece of mail matter to which the complaint refers. Complaints in general should likewise be addressed to the postmaster; but when that course is manifestly improper under the circumstances, they should be addressed to the Postmaster-General, Washington, D. C.

Concealed matter.—For knowingly concealing or inclosing any matter of a higher class in that of a lower class, and depositing or causing the same to be deposited for conveyance by mail at a less rate than would be charged for both such higher and lower class, the offender will be liable for every such offense to a fine of $10.

Dead letters.—All inquiries relative to mail matter known to have been sent to the Dead-Letter Office should be addressed to the First Assistant Postmaster-General, Dead-Letter Office; and in such cases the letter of inquiry must state to whom and what post-office the article was addressed, and give the name and full address of the writer or sender, the date and place of mailing, and a brief description of the contents. If it is known when the missing matter was sent to the Dead-Letter Office, the date and the reason for sending should be given. If registered, the registry number should be furnished.

Lost mail.—All inquiries by the public relative to lost or missing mail matter of every description, either foreign or domestic, ordinary or registered, should be addressed to the postmaster, who will forward the complaint to the proper officer of the Department. An early report is advised, as the chance of recovery is thereby increased.

Mutilated currency addressed to the Treasurer of the United States for redemption may be registered free, when the package is presented at the post-office before sealing and certain conditions (which will be made known by the postmaster) are there complied with, but the postage thereon must be prepaid at letter rates.

Overcharges.—Postmasters can not remit supposed overcharges on mail matter. In case of dispute, the person to whom the matter is addressed should deposit the extra postage in money with the postmaster, taking a receipt therefor. If upon investigation by the Department it is found that the extra postage is not properly chargeable, the postmaster will be directed to refund the deposit.

Periodical publications.—The Post-Office Department does not determine questions regarding the liability of a subscriber for the subscription price of a publication. Publications for which the addressee is not a subscriber, and which are not desired, may be refused and not removed from the post-office.

A subscriber to a publication should promptly notify the publisher of any change in his address.

POSTAL MONEY ORDER SYSTEM.

MONEY ORDERS, HOW OBTAINED.

Application.—The process of obtaining a money order is to fill in a simple form, called an "application," which form is furnished free of charge, and to present such application at the money-order branch of the post-office, where, upon payment of the sum to be sent and of the small fee exacted, a money order will be drawn for any desired amount (but no single order for more than $100), payable at any money-order office in the United States designated by the applicant. When a larger sum than $100 is to be sent additional orders may be obtained.

At all of the larger post-offices, those of the first, second, and third classes, and at many of the smaller ones, International money orders may also be obtained payable in almost any part of the world.

Identification.—The person who presents an order for payment must be prepared to prove his identity. In case of payment to the wrong person the Department will see that the amount is made good to the owner, provided the wrong payment was not brought about through fault on the part of remitter, payee, or indorsee.

Power of attorney.—A money order may be paid upon a written order or power of attorney from the payee, as well as upon his indorsement.

Repayment.—A domestic order may be repaid at the office of issue within one year from the last day of the month of its issue.

Lost orders.—In all cases of lost orders the remitter, payee, or indorsee may make application, through either the office at which the original was issued or the office on which the original was drawn, for a duplicate to be issued in lieu thereof.

No charge is made for the issue of a duplicate order, nor for the issue of a warrant for the amount of an invalid order.

FOREIGN MAIL MATTER AND RATES OF POSTAGE.

CLASSIFICATION.

Articles for or from foreign countries (except Canada, Mexico, and Cuba) are classified as "letters," post cards, "prints," "commercial or business papers," and "samples of merchandise."

This is known as the "Postal Union" classification of mail matter. There is no provision in the Postal Union mails for merchandise other than samples. A package of merchandise sealed and prepaid in full at the letter rate is, however transmitted in the Postal Union mails to destination as a "letter." The right of its entry into the foreign country is determined by the administration of the country of destination.

Prohibited articles, if mailed sealed against inspection, will not be delivered although they reach their destination.

Note.—Mail matter for Hawaii, Porto Rico, the Philippines, the islands of Guam and Tutuila, the "Canal Zone," and the United States postal agency at Shanghai, China, is subject to the domestic rates and conditions.

PROHIBITED ARTICLES.

The transmission of the following articles is absolutely prohibited in the foreign mails under any circumstances, viz., publications which violate the copyright laws of the country of destination; packets, except single volumes of printed books, which exceed 4 pounds 6 ounces in weight; poisons, explosive, or inflammable substances; live or dead, (not dried) animals; insects (except bees) and reptiles; fruits and vegetables which quickly decompose and substances which exhale a bad odor; lottery tickets or circulars; all obscene or immoral articles, and all articles which may destroy or damage the mails or injure persons handling them.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

The rates of postage applicable to all foreign countries, other than those above mentioned are as follows:

Single postal cards (including souvenir cards), each.....	2
Double postal cards (including souvenir cards), each.....	4

SAMPLES OF MERCHANDISE.

Rate of postage, for the first 4 ounces or less 2 cents; and for each additional 2 ounces, or fraction of 2 ounces, 1 cent. Limit of weight, 12 ounces. (See "Parcels Post," section 37.)

Packages of miscellaneous merchandise for foreign countries (except Canada, Mexico, Cuba, and the United States Postal Agency at Shanghai, China), are restricted to bona fide trade samples or specimens having no salable or commercial value in excess of that actually necessary for their use as samples or specimens.

Goods sent for sale, in execution of an order, or as gifts, however small the quantity, may be, are not admissible at the sample rate and conditions.

Pairs of articles, such as gloves, shoes, etc., but not such as suspenders or drawers, are not transmissible by mail to foreign countries as "samples of merchandise," but one article of a pair may be so transmitted. (See "Parcels Post," section 37.)

PERMISSIBLE ADDITIONS AND INCLOSURES.

Packets of printed matter, commercial papers, and samples must not contain any letter or manuscript note having the character of an actual and personal correspondence, and must be made up in such manner as to admit of being easily examined. The following manuscript additions may be made to "prints": The name, business, and residence of the sender, to visiting cards, the title and address of the sender, and congratulations, thanks, etc., not to exceed five words; the date of dispatch; the necessary corrections on proofs of printing, and the "copy" may be inclosed with the proof; corrections of errors in printing other than proof; the erasure and underscoring of certain words; the insertion or correction of figures in price lists, advertisements, trade circulars, and prospectuses; the insertion of the name of the traveler, the date and place of his intended visit, in notices concerning the trips of commercial travelers; the dates of sailing on notices relating to the sailing of vessels; the name of the person invited, the date, object, and place, on cards of invitation and notices of meetings; a dedication on books, journals, photographs, Christmas and New Years cards; fashion plates, maps, etc., may be painted; to cuttings from journals, the title, date, number, and address of the journal from which they were cut may be added; an invoice may be attached to the article to which it relates.

No manuscript additions other than those above indicated are allowed upon "prints."

It is permitted to inclose in the same package samples of merchandise, prints, and commercial papers, but subject to the following conditions: (1) That each class of articles taken singly shall not exceed the limits which are applicable to it as regards weight and size. (2) that the total weight of the package must not exceed 2 kilograms (4 pounds 6 ounces). (3) That the minimum charge shall be 5 cents when the package contains commercial papers and 2 cents when it consists of printed matter and samples.

PARCELS POST.

Admissible matter.—Any article admissible to the domestic mails of the United States may be sent, in unsealed packages, by "Parcels Post" to the following-named countries (but to those countries only):

Bahamas.
Barbados.
Colombia.
Costa Rica.
• The Danish West Indies.
Honduras (British).

Newfoundland.
Honduras (Republic of).
Trinidad, including Tobago.
Chile.
Germany.
Guatemala.

Jamaica.
Leeward Islands.

Windward Islands.

Nicaragua.

Size and weight of packages.—A package must not measure more than 3 feet 6 inches in length, and 6 feet in length and girth combined, except that packages sent to Mexico, Colombia, and Costa Rica may not measure over 2 feet in length. The weight of a single package is limited to 11 pounds, except that parcels for Germany and Hongkong, China, must not weigh more than 4 pounds 6 ounces.

Postage rates.—Postage must be prepaid in full by stamps affixed at the rate of 12 cents a pound or fraction of a pound, except that on packages to Chile and Bolivia the rate is 20 cents a pound or fraction thereof. Registry fee 8 cents in addition to postage. Letters or other communications in writing must not be inclosed with such packages.

Place of mailing.—Matter intended for Parcels Post must not be posted in a letter box, but must be taken to the post-office and presented to the postmaster, or person in charge, for inspection.

Directions on packages.—In addition to name and full address of the person to whom sent, the package must bear the words "Parcels Post" in upper left-hand corner, with the name and address of the sender.

Prohibited matter.—Any matter which is declared unmailable in the domestic mails is also denied transmission as "parcels-post" mail.

Customs declaration.—A customs declaration, furnished by the postmaster, must be properly filled out and firmly attached to the cover of the package in such a manner that it does not seal or close the package, so that it can be easily opened.

Letters prohibited.—A letter or communication of the nature of personal correspondence must not accompany, be written on, or inclosed with any parcel. If such be found, the letter will be placed in the mails if separable, and if the communication be inseparably attached, the whole parcel will be rejected. If, however, any such should inadvertently be forwarded, the country of destination will collect upon the letter or letters double the letter rate of postage prescribed by the Universal Postal Convention.

Customs duties.—The Post-Office Department can not state what articles are liable to customs duties in foreign countries, and consequently does not exclude articles of merchandise from the mails for foreign countries because they may be liable to customs duties in the countries to which they are addressed.

Customs duties can not be prepaid by the senders of dutiable articles; they will be collected of addressees if the articles are delivered.

Dutiable articles forwarded to the United States from foreign countries are delivered to addressees at post-offices of destination upon compliance with certain conditions and the payment of the duties levied thereon.

Annual Cyclopædia of the Church.

AFRICAN MISSIONS.

The religious movement of former native Methodists towards the Church, which has been given the name of the Order of Ethiopia, continues to make excellent progress. In November 1905 the Bishop of Grahamstown confirmed 122 persons from this order and administered Holy Communion to nearly 250. This was the second large class confirmed since the members of the order were first put under the instruction of priests of the Church. On the day following the Confirmation, matins and litany were said at 6:15 A. M., after which followed the Holy Communion, the candidates confirmed making their first communion. Two Sisters have been sent out from London to assist in the work.

ARKANSAS, DIOCESE OF.

The diocesan Council of 1906 resolved to memorialize General Convention to authorize "the creation of an autonomous Afro-American Church." The plan, which was suggested by the Bishop in his address, is based on the allegation that "the American negro can never do anything great until, so to speak, he gets through school and strikes out for himself." The Bishop proposed that the American Church "make provision for the consecration of three colored priests to the episcopate, and turn them loose to organize a separate autonomous Afro-American branch of the Catholic Church." It is this proposition that was endorsed by the diocesan Council and becomes the basis of their memorial to General Convention.

AUSTRALIA, CHURCH IN.

The Eighth General Synod of the Church in Australia, Tasmania, and New Guinea was held in the city of Sydney, October 3-12, 1905. The report in THE LIVING CHURCH tells of the picturesque nature of the opening function. The Bishops sat upon a raised dais on each side of the Primate, who wore his doctor's robes. The two Archbishops sat to the right and left of their senior Archbishop, clad in ermine and scarlet. All the Bishops wore robes, some of them having on purple cassocks. Most of them wore their pectoral crosses, whilst in the body of the hall were gathered round their tables the clerical and lay representatives. Those who were doctors of divinity wore their academic dress. Aprons and gaiters predominated among the clergy. One diocese, that of Bathurst, sent all Archdeacons (six) as its clerical quota. The laity produced senators, baronets, judges, lawyers, squatters, and leading commercial men.

The chief question discussed was in connection with a resolution introduced by the Bishop of Tasmania and carried through the Synod, in which the latter "affirms the ex animo acceptance of the credenda of the Quicumque Vult, but in view of the minatory clauses and of the general character of the document, it is of opinion that constitutional means should be adopted for the omission of the rubric requiring the public recitation."

Another resolution provided a fund for superannuation of Bishops and clergy and pensions to their widows and children, by the consolidation of existing diocesan funds. It was determined also that the Constitution should be amended so as to enlarge the legislative power of the Synod to deal with certain defined subjects, such as (1) the constitution of an Appellate Tribunal and a Tribunal for the trial of Bishops; (2) framing general rules for the formation of new dioceses and provinces; (3) making rules for the confirmation and consecration of Bishops and election or appointment of Primates; (4) the general missionary work of the Church, etc. The right of veto heretofore vested in the Primate was withdrawn. A resolution deploring the increasing frequency of divorce was passed. With regard to the increasing prominence of the question as to the relation of the different races of men in Australia, particularly with regard to Japanese, it was unanimously resolved that "it is unreasonable to assume that the white man is necessarily and inherently superior to every race of another color. That this Synod also desires to affirm (1) That colored nations who are advanced in culture and civilization are entitled to a measure of respect similar to that which is presumably enjoyed by a white nation; (2) That with regard to the less advanced races, it is a Christian duty to afford them such protection and education as is due from the elder to the younger brethren in the great human family of God.

A new ecclesiastical province was formed shortly prior to the meeting of the Synod, comprising the dioceses of Melbourne, Bendigo, Wangaratta, and Ballarat, the Bishop of Melbourne becoming Archbishop of the province. The diocese of New Guinea has been added to the province of Queensland.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The number of chapters reported is 1,229, and of members, 12,540. There was no convention held within the twelve months embraced within this Cyclopaedia, that of 1905 having been held in September, and that of 1906 in October.

CALIFORNIA, DIOCESE OF.

The earthquake and the fire which created such sad havoc in San Francisco and adjoining portions of California, bore with special hardships on all religious bodies, not only because churches were in many cases completely destroyed, but also and even more seriously because of the immediate cessation of the receipt of funds from the greater part of the diocese for all forms of diocesan work. Among our own churches in San Francisco there was almost total loss of Grace, S. Peter's, S. Luke's, S. John the Evangelist, the Advent, the Good Samaritan, the Seamen's mission church, and the Japanese and Chinese missions, as also of the Diocesan House. The remaining churches were more or less damaged, Trinity suffering especially from concussion by dynamite explosions. The episcopal residence was saved with only the loss of its chimneys. The clergy of all the parishes named, with their families, lost all their personal effects. The Church Home for Boys and the Maria Kip Orphanage were destroyed, but the inmates of these were uninjured. The new building in course of construction for Armitage Orphanage at San Mateo was destroyed, as was S. Matthew's Church at that point, and a considerable part of the contents of the Bishop's and the Archdeacon's offices and the property of the Pacific Churchman and of the Sunday School Commission. The new rectory at Santa Rosa was considerably damaged.

Appeals were at once made to the Church for relief to be given through the Bishop of California in addition to the General Relief Fund. An official statement sent out by the Board of Missions declared that the total net loss to the Church, after deducting probable available insurance, is $523,800, in addition to a loss of income to all forms of Church work. Three main channels of relief funds were established, being contributions sent to the Bishop direct, those sent through the Board of Missions, New York, and those sent through THE LIVING CHURCH, Milwaukee. The Pacific Churchman of September 1906 acknowledged these receipts in detail, but the total amount received at the time of closing these pages has not been stated.

A fine site on Nob Hill in San Francisco, consisting of the whole block square, upon which formerly stood the residences of the late Charles Crocker and Will H. Crocker, has been given to the diocese to be used for a Cathedral, Diocesan House, and Divinity College. It is stated that Grace Church is likely to be merged into the Cathedral corporation to be formed, and it is likely that the Cathedral to be built in the future will be the Church's memorial of the great catastrophe and its sad losses.

CANADA, CHURCH IN.

None of the Bishops of the Church of England in Canada have died during the kalendar year comprised within this report, though early in October 1906, being immediately after the closing of the dates therein comprised, the venerable Archbishop of Montreal, Primate of All Canada, the Most Rev. W. B. Bond, D.D., LL.D., died at the advanced age of ninety-one (91) years. He is succeeded in the Bishopric of Montreal by his Coadjutor, the Right Rev. James Carmichael, D.D., while the Archbishopric of the Ecclesiastical Province of Canada remains vacant until choice is made by the House of Bishops, precedent pointing to the senior Bishop within that province, the Right Rev. Arthur Sweatman, D.D., Bishop of Toronto.

During the year the vacancy in the Bishopric of Selkirk, caused by the resignation and subsequent death of Bishop Bompas, was filled by the consecration of the Rev. Isaac O. Stringer, D.D.

A sad incident of the year was the total destruction of S. Luke's Cathedral, Halifax, Nova Scotia, by fire on December 13th, 1905, and of the adjoining school house.

CHURCH CONGRESS.

The Church Congress of 1906 was held in Philadelphia in May. It was but sparsely attended owing largely, it was said, to the great heat which prevailed at the time. The leading topics discussed were "The Problem of Child Protection," "The Relation of Art to Religion and Life," "The Ethics of Legal Practice," "The Idea of God," "The Ethics of Subscription," "The Adaptation of Christianity to Japanese Life," and "How Shall Society Punish Moral Offenses?"

CHURCH ENDOWMENT SOCIETY.

This Society feels very much encouraged at the results achieved during the last year. Whether it is that the necessity and the wisdom of the Church Endowment Society as an institution are being better and better appreciated each year, or that many parishes and missions and Church organizations generally have secured and distributed copies of the new and practical booklet entitled Donations, Bequests, and Endowments, it is difficult to determine, but it is certain that there is increased interest in the work of the Society and that the results are demonstrating the utility and the feasibility of the plan of securing endowments advocated by the Church Endowment Society.

The publication by The Young Churchman Company of Milwaukee, Wis., of the booklet Donations, Bequests, and Endowments, and its sale by all Church publishers and booksellers at the nominal price of $3.00 per 100 copies has done, and is doing, a world of good in leading people to a better conception of their duty, in the matter of giving, to the Church and her institutions, and especially in the way of securing permanent endowment funds.

Among a large number of practical examples which might be given, the Society reports, simply to illustrate what is being accomplished, an endowment fund of $250,000 having been arranged for an educational institution. A theological college has adopted the plan of this Society and has provided for an endowment fund of $100,000. Endowment funds have been started for various objects in this and in the old country, among them for "The Support of the Episcopate," "The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society," "The Fund for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen and of Aged, Infirm, and Disabled Clergymen," and "The Order of the Holy Cross." Also the beginning of endowment funds for many parish churches, orphan asylums, a Home for Newsboys, the work of "The Little Sisters of the Poor," the maintenance of a "Home for Lepers," and other enterprises of a beneficent character. Much of the work of this Society has to be transacted with the understanding that there be no publicity, those adopting the plan desiring that the fact be not mentioned. This prevents as extended a report as would otherwise be the case.

The Society recommends the purchase and widespread circulation of the booklet, Donations, Bequests, and Endowments, containing, as it does, a full explanation of the object of the Society, practical illustrations of results achieved, and many incentives to people to give adequately and generously. It should be kept scattered about the pews of every church and mission.

The secretary-general of the Society is the Rev. E. W. Hunter, rector of S. Anna's Church, New Orleans, to whom all enquiries concerning the Society should be addressed.

CLERGYMEN'S RETIRING FUND.

From the annual report of this society, presented in November 1905, it appears that the total income for the year is $39,607.64. The net increase of the invested fund is $21,942, so that it now stands at $235,344.81. The present membership is 742, including 46 of the Bishops. Annuities are paid to 290, and the amount to be divided among them this month is $14,470.53. There is no annuitant who has not received back during the last four years more than all he has contributed to the treasury.

DAVIES, RIGHT REV. THOMAS F., D.D., LL.D.,

Late Bishop of Michigan, born in Fairfield, Conn., August 31st, 1831, died in Detroit, Mich., November 10th, 1905. He was graduated at Yale in the class of 1853, and at Berkeley Divinity School in 1856. He received deacon's orders in Christ Church, Middletown, Conn., May 18, 1856, from Bishop Williams, who advanced him to the priesthood in the same church, May 27, 1857. He filled successively the posts of Professor of Hebrew in the Berkeley Divinity School, rector of S. John's Church, Portsmouth, N. H., and of S. Peter's Church, Philadelphia. He was for a number of years a member of the Standing Committee of Pennsylvania, and from time to time deputy to the General Convention from that diocese. He received the doctorate in divinity from the University of Pennsylvania in 1876, and the doctorate of laws from Hobart in 1889. He was consecrated Bishop of Michigan in his parish church, S. Peter's, Philadelphia, October 18, 1889, by Bishops Williams, Whipple, Tuttle, Whitaker, Gillespie, Scarborough, Worthington, and H. C. Potter. He was a scholar and a theologian of much learning, and a "gentleman of the old school," who won the respect of men in whatever field he was placed. He had been in ill health for several years before his death.

DISCIPLINE, ECCLESIASTICAL.

The most important instance of ecclesiastical discipline within recent years was the presentation and trial under the canons of the diocese of Western New York, of the Rev. Algernon S. Crapsey, D.D., rector of S. Andrew's Church, Rochester.

The canons of the diocese of Western New York provide for the election of an Ecclesiastical Court composed of five presbyters, annually elected by the Diocesan Council from a list of ten such presbyters nominated to the Council by the Standing Committee (Title 3, Canon 1). There is provision that presentation of any candidate may be made according to any one of four different ways. He may be presented by a majority of the vestry of his parish, or by any three presbyters of the diocese, or by the Standing Committee, or by a Board of Inquiry, to be appointed by the Bishop.

During the spring of 1905, serious rumors were in circulation as to teachings of Dr. Crapsey, alleged to be not in accordance with the doctrine of this Church, or with his ordination vows. So grave were these rumors and allegations that the Bishop of the diocese appointed a Board of Inquiry, as provided by canon, which Board was charged with the canonical duty of inquiring into the sufficiency of these rumors. The members of this Board were the Rev. James W. Ashton, D.D., the Rev. Edward M. Duff, the Rev. Eugene J. Babcock, the Rev. Philip W. Mosher, and the Rev. Edwin S. Hoffman.

Under date of November 11, 1905, this Board of Inquiry presented its report to the Bishop. The Board recited that they had examined Dr. Crapsey's sermon-lectures as published in his book, Religion and Politics, his article in the Outlook of September 2nd, entitled "Honor Among Clergymen," and his reply to a letter of the Rev. Dr. Edward Abbott in the Outlook of September 30th. Continuing, they said: "It was painfully evident that certain passages in these writings were open to inferences which might be deemed derogatory to the Christian Faith. The Rev. Dr. Crapsey impresses us as being a man who easily surrenders himself to his intellectual vagaries, and the thing which for the time being appears to him to be true, he advocates with remarkable eloquence. He has now taken up with the theory of 'spiritual interpretation' and the opinions of the extreme rationalistic school of theology. His writings indicate that while he recites and affirms his belief in the Creeds of the Church, he virtually sets aside the historical sense in which their Articles have been and are received by this Church, and for it he substitutes a 'spiritual interpretation,' claiming to retain the spiritual reality for which Christianity stands while dismissing as indifferent the historical facts asserted in the Creeds. Your Committee is unanimous in its condemnation of the Rev. Dr. Crapsey's position in this matter." Reciting the vows which the defendant had assumed at his ordination, they declared: "Instead of keeping this vow, the Rev. Dr. Crapsey is substituting his own individual conviction for the Church's message to the great grief and hurt of many of his brethren; he has introduced into the Church's pulpit opinions and theories upon which the scholarship of the Christian world is not agreed, and which belong to the university and the theological school; he is subverting the doctrine and polity of the Church by claiming the right to teach in the place of the doctrine as received by this Church whatever may appear to him individually to be true." They stated also that they had obtained two affidavits by two presbyters of this diocese setting forth conversations which they had had with the Rev. Dr. Crapsey. In these conversations the Rev. Dr. Crapsey denied Articles of the Christian Faith and cast doubts upon the credulity of certain portions of the Gospel narrative. One of these conversations was held nearly a year, and the other about a year and a half ago. Thus far the board was unanimous in its report.

They had considered all these matters and were in disagreement as to the value as evidence of various passages in the book Religion and Politics. The majority of the Board, consisting of the Rev. Messrs. Babcock, Mosher, and Hoffman, held that the book, Religion and Politics, does not contain sufficient evidence to secure a conviction in case of a trial for heresy. "The book," they hold, "is not professedly a doctrinal treatise, but an effort to interpret the history of Christianity from the view-point of a certain critical school. It is difficult to determine whether a statement is meant to express the belief of the author, or whether he is expressing what he esteems a fact of history or is stating the opinions of others. It abounds with rhetorical phrases and much depends upon the meaning which the author assigns to this or that word. It is by inference rather than by unequivocal statements that conclusions as to the belief of the author are arrived at, and three of your Committee do not believe that these conclusions are sufficiently positive to stand as evidence in an ecclesiastical or civil court, and therefore they decline to present the Rev. Dr. Crapsey for trial." The minority, Dr. Ashton and Mr. Duff, held that there were in that book utterances which, in their opinion, "contain a denial of the facts stated in the Apostles' Creed, Conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, and The third day He rose again from the dead. In their opinion the language of the text admits of no other construction than such a denial. The minority, therefore, dissent from the majority."

No presentment being thus found, the matter was dropped for the time being. The rumors and reports relative to the teaching of Dr. Crapsey continuing to grow, rather than being allayed by this failure to present, in the winter following the Standing Committee took up the investigation by virtue of their authority in the premises already mentioned. Under date of February 23rd, 1906, the Standing Committee unanimously (except for the failure of Mr. Nathaniel Rochester, a lay member, to affix his signature, he being seriously ill at the time and dying immediately after) presented Dr. Crapsey for trial on two charges, each of which was divided into two specifications.

Charge number one was brought under Canon 23 §I (b) of the General Digest of Canons, authorizing presentment of one "Holding and Teaching publicly or privately, and advisedly, any doctrine contrary to that held by this Church." Specification No. I. under that charge relates the fact of the delivery by the defendant at S. Andrew's Church, Rochester, of sermons afterward published in volume Religion and Politics, from which fifteen different paragraphs are quoted in the specification. It is charged in this specification that the passages quoted are "intended to express the presbyter's disbelief in and to impugn and to deny" the following doctrines, to-wit: That Jesus Christ is God; that He was conceived by the Holy Ghost; the doctrine of the Virgin Birth; the Resurrection of Our Lord; and the Blessed Trinity. Specification number II. alleges the delivery of a sermon by the defendant on December 31st 1905, in which he made in substance the following distinct statements:

"1. 'Jesus was born of parents belonging to the middle class.'

"2. 'He was born of a simple father and mother.'

"3. 'He was the son of a carpenter.'

"4. 'The fact that the early Christians predicated a miraculous birth of Jesus was to be regarded as one of the greatest misfortunes that had ever befallen mankind.'

"It being intended by the said language, words, and terms to express the presbyter's disbelief in and to impugn and deny the following doctrines, to wit: that Jesus Christ is God, that He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, doctrine of the Virgin birth, and of the Blessed Trinity."

Charge No. 2 charges the defendant, under sub-section (f) of the same canon, with an "act which involves the violation of his ordination vows," and is supported by two specifications.

Specification No. 1 alleges the facts included in both specifications of Charge No. 1, and maintains that "these utterances and conduct violate and break the constitutional Declaration signed by a priest prior to ordination, and also the ordination vows as to ministering and teaching," which are quoted in extenso.

Specification No. 2 alleges:

"That upon many occasions during the years 1904 and 1905 the said presbyter did publicly use the liturgy of the Church, as set forth in the Book of Common Prayer, and did minister to many people the sacraments of the Church, and we charge that by his conduct in so doing, taken in connection with his public utterances, above quoted, he violated and broke the following ordination vows taken by him, to wit: "naming the vows as to life and attitude."

The presentment was allowed by the Bishop, and the Ecclesiastical Court was summoned to meet at the parish house of S. James' Church, Batavia, on April 17th. The elected members of the Court consisted of the Rev. Chas. W. Hayes, D.D.; Rev. Walter C. Roberts; Rev. Chas. H. Boynton, Ph.D.; Rev. C. Morton Sills, D.D.; and the Rev. Francis S. Dunham, Ph.D.

The Ecclesiastical Court met on April 17th agreeably to call. The defense had challenged the Rev. Dr. Hayes and the Rev. Dr. Sills, and in their places on the nomination of the Bishop and agreeably to canon, the Standing Committee had appointed the Rev. John Mills Gilbert and the Rev. G. Sherman Burrows.

There appeared for the prosecution Mr. John Lord O'Brian; the Hon. John H. Stiness, LL.D.; the Rev. Francis J. Hall, D.D.; and Mr. Franklin D. Locke, as counsel, with several clergymen. For the defense there appeared the Hon. James B. Perkins and later Mr. Edward M. Shepard. From the Standing Committee there also appeared a special committee of that body, as representing the relators, consisting of the Rev. Walter North, Rev. Andrew J. Graham, and H. R. Hopkins, M.D.

There had been a high celebration of Holy Communion, after which the Court was formally opened with prayer, and the presentment was read, after which was presented the answer of the defendant. The answer admitted the publication of the book Religion and Politics, and of the excerpts cited therefrom in the presentment, and referred to the remainder of the book "for further explanation of the views advanced by him." It recited the ordination vows in part, and denied both charges on behalf of the defendant, except so far as he had admitted the statements contained in specification one of charge one, as hereinbefore answered unto. It also denied that the respondent had taught in the passages referred to "anything but what is contained in the Holy Scriptures, and except what he is persuaded may be concluded and proved by the Holy Scriptures." It was also recited that the charge based on the book Religion and Politics had already been investigated by the Board appointed for that purpose according to the canon, and in the opinion of that Board there was no cause for a presentment against this respondent, and that he had not been guilty of any offense for which he was liable to be tried." The answer set forth that by reason of the previous appointment of that Board, "the Standing Committee of this diocese had no further jurisdiction to make a presentment against this respondent, and this proceeding cannot be sustained and is contrary to the ordinances and canons of the dioceses of Western New York and of the Protestant Episcopal Church of America." The answer further objected to the trial on the grounds that the Court of Appeals provided by Article IX. of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America, "has not yet been established by the General Convention of such Church, and that the Court of the diocese of Western New York cannot lawfully or properly entertain or consider the charges made in the said presentment for the reason that they involve questions of doctrine, faith, and worship."

A motion to postpone the trial until June was made and denied, and subsequently by agreement of counsel on both sides, the Court was adjourned until Wednesday, April 25th.

On that date the Court reopened in Genesee county court house, which was kindly placed at the disposal of the Ecclesiastical Court by the authorities, the Rev. W. C. Roberts presiding and occupying the seat belonging to the Judge of the Supreme Court of the state of New York. At his side was the Hon. S. E. North, an attorney of high standing, who acted as assessor to the Ecclesiastical Court.

An amended answer to the presentment was received, in which objection to the consideration of the presentment by the Court was made by the defense on the ground that the majority of this Court, as constituted, "have been appointed by the said Bishop and said Standing Committee, and the remaining members of the said Court were selected from the list prepared by the said Standing Committee and submitted to the Council of the diocese of Western New York, the Standing Committee having already formulated the presentment and the Bishop approved of it."

The answer asked that trial be postponed until after the next Diocesan Council might select such Standing Committee and ecclesiastical court as they see fit, "so as to represent the true opinion and wish of the diocese as to this prosecution." The motion was denied by the Court and the trial proceeded. The defense objected to the offering of the prosecution in evidence of the entire book, Religion and Politics, and the objection was sustained. The prosecution offered the Book of Common Prayer and cited over fifty passages in which the Church affirms those doctrines, which the defendant was accused of denying. One witness only was called by the Church, the Rev. F. J. K. Alexander, formerly curate at S. Andrew's Church, who testified to the accuracy of the allegations in specification 2 of charge 1. The defense objected to the calling of the Rev. Francis Woodward, who was to testify in regard to a conversation with the defendant, which the prosecution maintained was desired to prove the intent of the defendant, and the objection was sustained.

The defense called the Rev. J. A. Leighton, Professor and Chaplain at Hobart College, who testified as to books by Anglican divines in which similar opinions to these maintained by the defendant were set forth. A prolonged discussion between counsel as to the admissibility of such evidence led to the decision of the Court that it might not be admitted. The defense afterward introduced the Rev. W. L. Hoopes, Rev. A. W. Stein, Rev. John W. Suter, Rev. Edwin S. Hoffman, Rev. George C. Cox, Rev. Dr. John P. Peters, Rev. John H. Melish, Rev. Chas. H. Babcock, Rev. Frank H. Nelson, and Rev. Dr. Edwood Worcester, to each of whom the same questions were put and the same objections made and sustained. The defense submitted a written statement of the defendant as to his position.

The summing up by the attorneys and theological experts followed on the next day, attorneys Locke and O'Brian and the Rev. Dr. Hall speaking for the Church, and Messers. Perkins and Shepard and the Rev. Dr. Worcester and the Rev. Samuel McComb, his assistant at Emmanuel Church, Boston, who had formerly been a minister in one of the sects and who had been in Holy Orders only seven months, for the defense.

The Court rendered its verdict early in May, four members signing the report. They found the defendant guilty on each of the counts, holding that in the December sermon he had denied "the doctrine that our Lord Jesus Christ is God, the Saviour of the world"; "the doctrine that our Lord Jesus Christ was conceived by the Holy Ghost"; "the doctrine of the Virgin Birth of our Lord Jesus Christ"; "the doctrine of the Resurrection of our blessed Lord and Saviour"; and "the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity." Also that the respondent was guilty in that by his writings in the book he "impugns, if he does not express his disbelief in and denial of" the doctrines set forth in paragraphs numbered 1 and 5. Also that he had violated his ordination vows in such teachings. The verdict asked that sentence be pronounced, according to which the respondent should be "suspended from exercising the functions of a minister of this Church until such time as he shall satisfy the ecclesiastical authority of the diocese that his belief and teachings conform to the doctrines of the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed as this Church hath received the same. However, we express the earnest hope and desire that the respondent may see his way clear, during the thirty days which, under the canons of the Church, must intervene before sentence can be pronounced, to fully satisfy the ecclesiastical authority of such conformity on his part."

One member of the Court, the Rev. F. S. Dunham, filed a minority report citing that since the respondent affirms his acceptance of "all the Articles of the Christian faith as contained in the Apostles' Creed, and since the Creed declares those doctrines, which the respondent is said to have denied, the minority member finds from statements of the respondent and the evidence submitted for his defense that his error consists rather in presuming to define what God has not been pleased to reveal and to interpret those doctrines in a manner not generally received by the Church, rather than in a denial and rejection of their truth and authority."

Appeal was taken from this verdict early in June and the Court of Review for the Second Judicial department of the Church, as framed by the General Convention of 1904, was asked to reconsider the verdict on several technical grounds, especially that the Court was improperly constituted, that the motion for adjournment was unreasonably denied, that witnesses for the defense were ruled out of Court, and on the ground of a number of exceptions which were taken during the course of the trial. The hearing before the Court of review had not taken place at the conclusion of the time embraced within this Cyclopaedia.

ENGLAND, CHURCH OF.

Changes in the English Episcopate during the year were fewer than usual. The death of the Bishop of Truro, the Rt. Rev. John Gott, D.D., made a vacancy, which was filled by the appointment of the Very Rev. Charles W. Stubbs, who awaits consecration. In that diocese a Bishop Suffragan with the title of Bishop of S. Germans was consecrated in 1905, being the Rt. Rev. John Rundle Cornish. The resignation of Dr. Fisher, Bishop Suffragan of Ipswich in the diocese of Norwich, was filled by the consecration to succeed him of the Rev. Henry Luke Paget. For the diocese of Durham there was consecrated the Bishop Suffragan of Jarrow, the Rev. George Nickson, LL.D., and for the diocese of Ripon a second Suffragan, to be known as the Bishop of Knaresborough, the Rt. Rev. Lucius F. M. B. Smith, D.D.

The Representative Church Council held its first session since called into being, in November 1905, the Archbishops acting jointly as presidents. A constitution was adopted providing for the organization of three Houses, an affirmative vote of each of which shall be essential to the enactment of legislation. Membership is to consist of the members of the Upper and Lower Houses of Convocation and of the Houses of Laymen in both Provinces. Franchise for the election of members of ruridecanal conferences and parochial councils, which two later will elect representatives to the Diocesan Conference, which Conference elects members of the Houses of Laymen, was granted to laymen who have "the status of a communicant," and who do not "belong to any religious body which is not in communion with the Church of England," including women who are householders.

The determination of the Liberal Party in Parliament to amend the Education act in such wise as very seriously to undermine the rights of the Church to regulate her teaching in her own schools, has aroused a large degree of controversy and vigorous protests from Churchmen. Protests have been made by the Archbishop of Canterbury and several others of the Bishops in the House of Lords, and by the two Convocations, as well as through the press and otherwise.

That notorious priest, the Rev. R. C. Fillingham, was brought to trial in December 1905 in the diocese of S. Albans, for contravention of the ecclesiastical law in purporting to ordain a priest, he not being a bishop. He was found guilty on February 13th, 1906, and the Court declared that if within two weeks he should not acknowledge his offence and promise not to repeat it, sentence of deprivation should be pronounced upon him. Mr. Fillingham did, however, make such promise within the time specified and sentence was suspended.

The Advent ordinations of 1905 show a total of 216 deacons ordained, as compared with 205 in Advent 1905, and a total of 257 priests as compared with 228. For the whole year of 1905 there was an increase of 44 in the number of deacons ordained, 636 in all, and the number was greater than in any previous year since 1899, though less than for several years preceding that time. The percentage of Oxford and Cambridge graduates continues to diminish.

FREE AND OPEN CHURCH ASSOCIATION.

It was reported at the annual meeting of this body within the diocese of Pennsylvania that there are in the American Church 4,949 free churches against 785 in which pews are rented, making a total of 84½ per cent. of churches free.

FRANCE.

Religion in France was very seriously affected within the year by the passage by the Chambers of the Law of Separation early in December 1905. According to this law the Concordat between the Roman See and the government of France, which dates from 1803, is repealed, and that by the one party to it alone without consulting the other. The French government no longer pays the subsidies to the Church in the form of episcopal salaries, which according to the Concordat were to be regularly paid in lieu of possession of the endowments of the Church, which at that time were seized by the State. Throughout the religious world, the protests against this act of spoliation have been intense. Serious friction between the Papal See and the government has resulted and the former has forbidden the formation of the legal bodies of laymen that were to succeed to the possession of churches in place of the ancient parochial and diocesan corporations, according to the new law.

GEORGIA, DIOCESE OF.

It was unanimously determined at the annual Convention of the diocese of Georgia held in May, 1906, that permission should be asked from General Convention to divide the diocese, and at the same time it was determined to divide the diocesan funds between the two. The line of division cuts the state from west to east beginning south of the city of Columbus and extending east and then northeasterly in such wise that Columbus, Macon, and Milledgeville are in the northern diocese, but near the border, while Americus, Hawkinsville, and Augusta are across the border in the southern diocese. The southeastern portion of the state retains the old name and is to be the old diocese, with its see city probably at Savannah. The present see city of Atlanta will, therefore, be in the new diocese.

Matters relating to the support of the Bishops in the two dioceses were referred to a committee, and the corporation of the diocese was authorized to apply to the Supreme Court of the state for such amendments of its charter as are necessary.

The diocese also finally adopted the amendments to its constitution passed last year, whereby there is created a Council of Colored Churchmen in the diocese of Georgia as distinct from the diocesan Convention. This is in accordance with a memorial from colored Churchmen and provides autonomous government under the Bishop for churches and clergymen of that race. Lay representation in that Council is on the basis of one delegate for every twenty-five communicants in good standing, which term is defined as meaning those who have "communed at least twice a year and have paid the greater part of their stipulated pledges to the parish or mission"; other communicants enrolled are "not in good standing." Three clergymen and five lay delegates constitute a quorum in the Council of colored clergymen. That Council held its primary session, though without the authorization of the diocesan constitutional amendment which had not then been ratified, on January 31st, 1906, in Brunswick.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY.

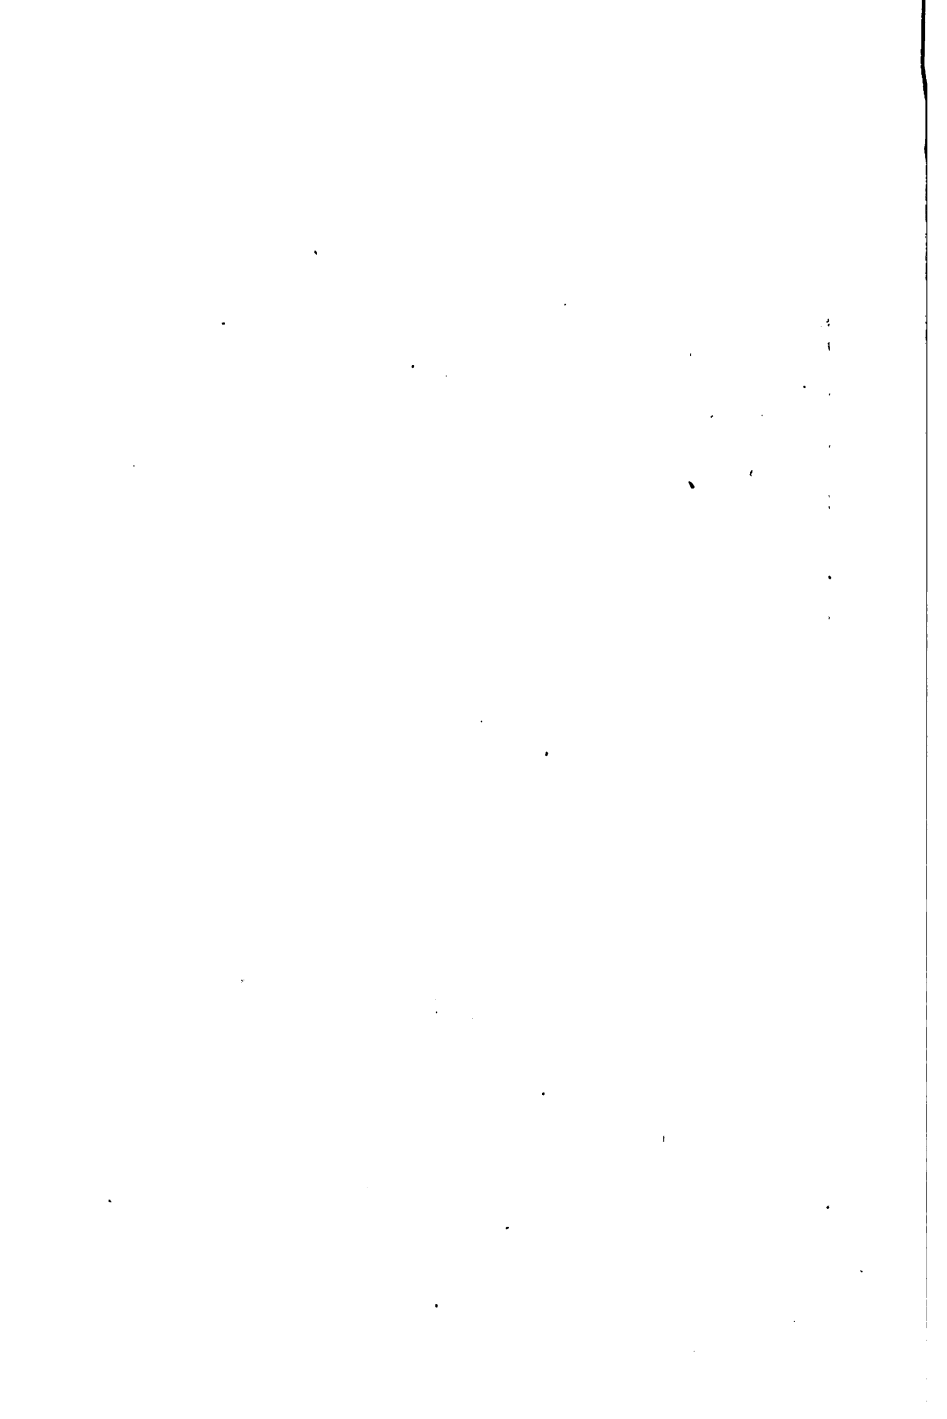

At the twentieth annual meeting of the Central Council of this Society held in St. George's parish house, New York, in October 1905, it was reported that over fifty new branches had been formed during the preceding year, several holiday houses had been opened, and other work accomplished. New legislation provides that "No one shall be admitted as an associate who, being divorced from her husband, has during his life-time been married to another, or who has married a man having a divorced wife living." More than one thousand members and associates took part in the long procession which entered St. George's Church at the final service.

GUILD OF ST. BARNABAS FOR NURSES.

It was reported to the Annual Council of this organization held in Charleston, S. C., in October 1905, that there are 2,100 members and associates and local organizations in 31 cities. Steps were taken for the establishment of a nurses' pension fund.

RT. REV. JOHN N. McCORMICK, D.D.,
BISHOP COADJUTOR OF WESTERN MICHIGAN.

MASSACHUSETTS, DIOCESE OF.

The question of the establishment of a Cathedral for the diocese was discussed in the annual convention in May 1906, in accordance with resolutions which accepted the generous gift made in the will of the late Mary Sophia Walker for the purpose. A committee was appointed to devise a proper scheme for the establishment of such a foundation within the diocese. General Convention was by resolution requested to consider the propriety of reducing the diocesan representation in the House of Deputies to three clerical and three lay members from each.

In his Convention address Bishop Lawrence analyzed the conditions according to which 157 persons had been ordained within that diocese during a term of years. Of those he found that 75 to 80 per cent. "had a liberal education before they began their strictly professional studies," and over 90 per cent. had had the full theological course of three years. Of the 157 candidates, only three were as young as 27 years of age, two were 28, three were 29, and the remainder over 30 at the time of their ordination. Of the 157, 124 reported that their salaries are paid promptly, 14 fairly promptly, and 18 not promptly. Out of the full number, 117 were in receipt of a salary less than $2,000; 27 men receive a salary of from $2,000 to 3,000; 6 men receive a salary of from $3,000 to 4,000; and 7 men receive a salary of $4,000 and over. Of the 157, 48 had no life insurance; 104 having life insurance averaging $4,341, and the remainder made no reply to that question. In striking this average, one man has $20,000 and 15 have $10,000 and over, leaving for the remainder of the list only an average of $3,079.

McCORMICK, RIGHT REV. JOHN NEWTON, D.D.,

Bishop Coadjutor of Western Michigan, was born in Richmond, Va., February 1st, 1863. He is the son of John and Virginia (Newton) McCormick and was educated at Stuart Hall, Baltimore, and Randolph-Macon College, from which latter he received the degree of A.B. in 1883. He then spent two years* in post-graduate work at Johns Hopkins University, and in 1903 was made D.D. by the University of the South. He was a Methodist minister from 1883 to 1893, and was ordained deacon on December 4th of the latter year and priest on March 16th, 1894, both by the present Bishop of Southern Virginia. His ancestors had been Virginia Churchmen for many generations, the maternal grandfather, Colonel Augustine Newton, having been a vestryman of S. Paul's Church, Alexandria, in the churchyard of which he and his wife are buried. Dr. McCormick served several parishes in Virginia and was then called to S. Luke's Church, Atlanta, Ga., where he served as rector for three years, leaving that parish to go to S. Mark's Church, Grand Rapids, in 1898. He is author of two useful works, Distinctive Marks of the Episcopal Church and The Litany and the Life.

Dr. McCormick was elected Bishop Coadjutor of Western Michigan on Tuesday, December 12th, 1905, and was consecrated in S. Mark's Church, Grand Rapids, on February 14th, 1906. The Presiding Bishop acted in person and was assisted by the Bishops of Western Michigan, Georgia, Kentucky, Marquette, Cuba, Chicago, and Michigan City.

MEXICO, MISSIONARY DISTRICT OF.

There was accomplished at the Convention of the Missionary District in February 1906, the union between the native work of the Mexican Episcopal Church, founded a generation ago, and the chapels of English and American residents within the republic. These two classes of work have heretofore been entirely distinct, the Mexican native Church having several times asked for the consecration of a native Bishop, which request, for many reasons, had never been granted by the American Church. At the time of the consecration of Bishop Aves, as first Bishop of the American Church in Mexico, as a result of legislation in General Convention of 1904, his jurisdiction was confined to the care of American residents in Mexico, but he was given also the appointment of "provincial Bishop for the Mexican Episcopal Church." The union of the two classes of work was accomplished at a Synod in which both were represented and in which eleven native clergymen and lay delegates from twenty-two native congregations were present with the representatives of the American Church missions. It is believed that work in the republic of Mexico will be much simplified and will be accomplished with far more harmony as the result of this union.

MICHIGAN, DIOCESE OF.

The episcopate of the diocese became vacant by the death of the Rt. Rev. THOMAS F. DAVIES, D.D., LL.D., on November 9th, 1905. To succeed Bishop Davies there was chosen at the Diocesan Convention in November 1905, the Very Rev. CHARLES D. WILLIAMS, D.D., Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Cleveland, Ohio. Dean Williams was elected on the second ballot, the result of which was as follows:

	Clerical.	Lay.
Roll Call. Total Vote.....	63	54
Necessary to Choice.....	32	54
Rev. Charles D. Williams, D.D., Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Cleveland, Ohio.....	39	80

Rev. W. F. Faber, D.D., Rector of St. John's Church, Detroit, Mich.....	3
Rev. John McCarroll, M.D., Rector of Grace Church, Detroit, Mich.....	1
Rev. Wm. S. Sayers, D.D., General Missionary of the Diocese.....	3	5
Rev. C. H. I. Channer, Rector of Christ Church, Adrian, Mich.....	1	2
Rev. J. C. Roper, General Seminary, New York City.....	3	2
Rev. C. J. F. Wrigley.....	1	2

MILWAUKEE, DIOCESE OF.

The request of the Bishop for the election of a Coadjutor by reason of his own serious illness, and the declination of the Very Rev. Paul Matthews, who had been elected Bishop Coadjutor at the annual Council in September 1905, made necessary a second choice for Bishop Coadjutor at an adjourned meeting of the Council held on November 21st, 1905, at which the Rev. WILLIAM

WALTER WEBB, D.D., was chosen on the first formal ballot. The result of that ballot was as follows:

	Clerical.	Lay.
Total number of votes.....	42	36
Necessary to choice.....	22	19
Rev. W. W. Webb, D.D.....	33	21
Rev. C. L. Mallory.....	4	7
Bishop Mann.....	3	—
Rev. H. D. Robinson, D.D.....	1	1
Rev. Irving P. Johnson.....	—	2
Rev. Charles Fiske.....	1	—
Rev. J. McG. Foster.....	—	4
Rev. James Slidell.....	—	1

Two notable resolutions were passed by the Council, one of these was as follows:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this Council that the late action of the Russian Archbishop Tikhon in ordaining to the priesthood a deposed priest of the Anglican communion is to be profoundly deplored. In the large efforts recently inaugurated looking toward the union of separated branches of Christ's Church, such action tends to misunderstanding and delays the consummation of that day when we all may be one."

The other affirmed a series of preambles and resolutions that were offered in the preceding Convention of the diocese of New York with respect to high ideals in business interests, which resolutions in New York had not been seconded.

MISSIONS, GENERAL.

The Treasurer's books for the fiscal year closed September 17th, 1906. He reported that there had been received during the year amounts as follows:

From parish offerings	$368,477.36
From gifts of individuals.....	118,797.66
	$487,275.02
From Sunday Schools.....	$135,292.54
From branches of the Woman's Auxiliary	98,239.94
From individual members of the Woman's Auxiliary.....	14,491.08
From the Junior Auxiliary.....	8,670.64
Interest	56,003.27
Miscellaneous items.....	11,429.16
	$811,401.65

It appears, therefore, that the parish offerings, which alone are raised through the apportionment system, comprise 45 per cent. of the amounts contributed in the Church for general missions, the remaining 55 per cent. being received apart from that system. The gain over the previous year of offerings from parishes and individuals was $13,254.61, and in five years there was a gain of $251,282.21, being more than doubled. Nineteen dioceses and 22 missionary districts had paid their apportionments. The increase in Sunday School Lenten offerings from the previous year was $16,643.88, and the increase in Sunday Schools contributing was 201. The appropriations made by the Board for the year were $987,861.34.

The contributions for the year, $811,401.65, together with the legacies which will be applied towards the appropriations (including $960 from the Martin bequest of some years ago) making $102,132.33, considerably more than cover the appropriations of the year, which are $830,568.03; leaving a balance of $82,865.95, which deducted from the deficiency of September 1st a year ago, leaves the figure at $74,327.36 for September 1st, 1906.

In an address before the Laymen's Forward Movement of the Fifth Missionary Department, October 30th, 1905, the Treasurer of the General Board, Mr. George C. Thomas, further reported facts in regard to the holdings of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, from which it appears that the assets of that society are nearly $4,000,000, divided as follows:

Property owned by the Society in Mission Field.....	$1,250,000.00
Trust Funds.....	1,920,000.00
Church-Missions House.....	500,000.00
	$3,670,000.00

At its meeting in November 1905, the Board of Missions determined that paid secretaries to receive from $2,000 to $3,000 per year with in each case an additional $1,000 for travelling expenses, should be appointed for each of the missionary departments. Appointments have been made, as appear otherwise in this volume.

Missionary gatherings representative of the several departments have been held in each of them during the year, except in the First, or New England Department. The Second Department, comprising the dioceses within the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware, held no distinct conference, but the American Church Missionary Society held such a gathering in the city of Trenton, N. J., on December 5th, 1905, and made it in effect representative of that department. The Third Department, comprising the dioceses within the states of Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, and Tennessee, held its conference in Nashville, November 1-3rd, 1905. In this department there was also a notable conference of lay workers in Louisville in October 1905, when much interest was aroused. As a consequence of it there was formed the Laymen's League of Louisville with 59 charter members.

The Fifth Department, comprising the twelve dioceses of the Middle West, is organized in the Laymen's Forward Movement, and held a notable gathering in Chicago on October 30th and 31st, 1905. The Sixth Department, comprising the dioceses from the Mississippi river westward, inclusive of Montana and Colorado and south inclusive of Missouri and Kansas, held a conference in Denver, October 18-21st, 1905. In the Seventh Department, comprising the dioceses west of the Rockies, there was held the fourth annual conference in Seattle, April 25-27th, 1906. In the Eighth Department, comprising the dioceses within Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Oklahoma, there was a similar gathering in Dallas, November 21-23rd, 1905. At all these Department conferences there was much interest for missions aroused and the wisdom of the division of the country into Missionary Departments was easily vindicated.

MORRIS, THE RT. REV. BENJAMIN WISTAR, D.D.,

Late Bishop of Oregon, born May 30th, 1819, died April 7th, 1906. He was graduated from the General Theological Seminary in 1846, and was ordered deacon June 28th of that year and advanced to the priesthood April 27th, 1847. He was rector of S. Matthew's, Sunbury, Pa., four years, after which he became rector of S. David's, Manayunk, where he remained six years, when he became assistant minister of S. Luke's, Germantown, where he remained until his elevation to the episcopate. Received degree of S.T.D. from Columbia, New York, and that of D.D. from University of Pennsylvania, 1868. Consecrated Missionary Bishop of Oregon and Washington Territory, in S. Luke's, Philadelphia, December 3rd, 1868, by Bishops Lee of Delaware, Odenheimer of New Jersey, Vail of Kansas, Clarkson of Nebraska, Randall of Colorado, and Kerfoot of Pittsburg. In 1880 his jurisdiction was divided, Washington Territory becoming a separate jurisdiction, and Bishop Morris remaining in charge of Oregon. The latter district was organized into a diocese in 1899, Bishop Morris becoming the first diocesan.

NEGROES, WORK AMONG.

There was created in the summer of 1906, through the instrumentality of the Board of Missions, an organization to be known as the American Church Institute for Negroes.. It was incorporated under the laws of the state of Virginia with a body of three Bishops, three clergymen, and six laymen named by the Board of Missions as trustees. The organization is empowered to receive and distribute funds and bequests for work among negroes, and to carry on such work, particularly in the way of education, as they may be able to. The institute has established common ground between three Church schools for work among the colored people, being the Bishop Payne Divinity School, Petersburg, Va.; the Saint Paul Normal and Industrial School, Lawrenceville, Va.; and the St. Augustine School, Raleigh, N. C., which at present are working through this organization. The Institute asks for $200,000 to be put at its disposal in order that work in these three institutions may be put upon a "more thorough and substantial basis." They appointed the Rev. Samuel H. Bishop (500 W. 122nd Street, New York City) as field secretary.

NEW HAMPSHIRE, DIOCESE OF.

A Bishop Coadjutor was chosen at the Annual Convention in November 1905, agreeably to request of the Bishop. There was but one formal ballot, which resulted in the choice of the Rev. EDWARD M. PARKER..

The vote was as follows:

	Clerical.	Lay.
Total vote.....	34	43
Necessary to choice.....	18	22
Rev. Edward M. Parker.....	23	29
Rev. Henry B. Bryan.....	8	13
Scattering.....	3	1

It was voted that the present salary of the Bishop of the diocese be increased by $500, making it $3,500 annually, although the Bishop had offered to relinquish $500 to be applied to the salary of his Coadjutor; $3,000 was voted as the salary of the latter.

NORTH CAROLINA, DIOCESE OF.

In the diocesan Convention, the subject of autonomous organization of negro clergy and congregations apart from the diocesan Convention, was discussed, and it was resolved that such plans should be adopted, confining the membership of the diocesan Convention to white clergymen and delegates from congregations of white people. The definite legislation needed to accomplish the plan was deferred for a year in order that the colored people might discuss it in their Convocation and express to the next Convention their views upon the question.

OLD CATHOLICS.

The death of Bishop Weber, the Old Catholic Bishop in Germany, in the year 1906, led to the election and consecration to succeed him of the vicar General Pfarrer Demmel, he receiving 108 out of a possible 118 votes of the electors. His election was on June 6th, 1906. He was consecrated at Bonn on July 26th by the Archbishop of Utrecht, assisted by Bishop Herzog of Berne and Bishop Spit of Deventer. Seated among the clergy and having part with them in the procession was a representative of the Church of England, the Rev. A. R. T. Winckley, chaplain at Aix-La-Chapelle. The service of the Holy Eucharist was in Latin, but the consecration, for the most part, was in German. It is to be said that Bishop Demmel is accustomed always to celebrate Mass in Latin, rather than in the vulgar tongue.

There was also consecrated during the year, Bishop van Thiel, for Haarlem in Holland, OREGON, DIOCESE OF.

The death of Bishop MORRIS created a vacancy in the episcopate of the diocese of Oregon, which was filled by the election in June 1906 of the Rev. CHARLES SCADDING, and his consecration on S. Michael and All Angels' day. At the election Mr. Scadding was elected on the first clerical ballot, receiving 13 votes against 11 cast for the Rev. F. W. Clampett and one for the Rev. Hudson Stuck. The election was unanimously confirmed by the laity.

PANAMA CANAL ZONE.

There was accomplished in April 1906 a transfer of the Ecclesiastical jurisdiction on the Isthmus of Panama from the Church of England to the American Church, and a Concordat was signed by the Archbishop of the West Indies and the Bishop of Honduras on the one side and the Presiding Bishop of the American Church on the other, whereby that transfer was made. There had previously been approval voted by the diocesan Synod of Honduras, of which the Isthmus was formerly a part, by the Provincial Synod of the West Indies, and by the Archbishop of Canterbury. It is provided that in the future clergy for that district shall be nominated by the (American) Board of Missions and licensed by the Bishop of Honduras, and shall be, with all catechists, under the direct superintendence of the latter Bishop, who will report his diocesan actions to the Bishop of Washington, as representing the American Church.

PARKER, RIGHT REV. EDWARD MELVILLE, D.D.,

Bishop Coadjutor of New Hampshire, was born in Cambridge, Mass., July 11th, 1855. His father, Henry M. Parker, was a Massachusetts layman with this connection with New Hampshire, that he was a lay reader in Jaffrey, N. H., many years ago, and was one of the original trustees of S. Paul's School, Concord. The present Bishop was a boy at S. Paul's School from 1868 to 1874; thence he went to Keble College, Oxford, receiving his bachelor's degree in 1878 and his master's degree later. He returned to S. Paul's School as a master, and in 1879 was ordained deacon by Bishop Niles, receiving priest's orders at the hands of Bishop Neely, acting for Bishop Niles, in 1881. In 1885 he married a daughter of the late Rev. J. J. Elmendorf, D.D., Professor in Racine College. Mrs. Parker lived less than three years after their marriage.

Bishop Parker's ministry prior to his consecration to the episcopate was spent as a master in St. Paul's School. He was in charge of one of the School's mission stations from 1881 till his consecration. He was elected Bishop Coadjutor of New Hampshire at the annual convention in November 1905, and was consecrated in S. Paul's Church, Concord, on Friday, February 9th, 1906. The Bishop-elect was attended by the Rev. George W. Lay and the Rev. W. Stanley Emery. The Bishop of New Hampshire was consecrator, assisted by the Bishops of Massachusetts and Connecticut by designation, and the Bishop of Vermont was preacher.

PITTSBURGH, DIOCESE OF.

Division of the diocese was determined upon at the diocesan Convention in May, provided that General Convention shall give its consent. The lines of that division will appear from the accompanying diagram. It was determined that the invested funds shall be equally divided between the two dioceses, and it was left to a committee of fifteen to devise other ways and means and report to the Convention of 1907. It is hoped that enough may be added to the present endowment fund to provide such a fund of from $40,000 to $50,000 for the new diocese.

The new diocese will embrace the 13 northern counties with Erie as its see city. It will contain 29 parishes, about the same number of missions, and about 40 clergymen. The diocese of Pittsburgh will be limited to the 11 counties south of the line.

QUINCY, DIOCESE OF.

A notable declaration was set forth by all the clergy present at the meeting of the diocesan Synod in November 1905, with the Bishop's name at the head, whereby all agreed that they would not solemnize the marriage of any person who has been divorced during the lifetime of the other party. The declaration recorded 21 signatures. A diocesan organization of the Laymen's Forward Movement for general missions was formed.

RUSSIAN CHURCH, THE.

Agreeably to a desire expressed by vote of the Holy Synod in the spring of 1905, the Emperor addressed in January 1906 a rescript to the Metropolitan Antonius, president of the Holy Synod, declaring his desire that suitable reforms be carried out "in the organization of our national Church on the basis of ecumenical canons." The Emperor authorized the Metropolitan of St. Petersburg, Moscow, and Kieff to fix the date for the convocation of "an extraordinary national Council for the settlement of Ecclesiastical affairs."

In the fall of 1905 there was an exchange of courtesies between the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Metropolitan of St. Petersburg, in which the former expressed the deep sympathy of the Church of England in the sorrows which had fallen upon the Church and realm of Russia, and the Metropolitan made a graceful reply expressing appreciation.

Much friction was caused in the United States between the American and Russian Churches in the ordination by the Russian Archbishop in New York, Dr. Tikhon, of Dr. I. N. W. Irvine, a deposed priest of the American Church. Dr. Irvine had been deposed from the ministry some years previously after ecclesiastical trial in the diocese of Central Pennsylvania. He had maintained that the charges upon which he was convicted were false, had appealed both to the diocesan Convention of Central Pennsylvania and to the House of Bishops for relief, and a Board of Inquiry appointed under the canons of the American Church had investigated the allegations submitted by Dr. Irvine against the Bishop of Central Pennsylvania, relative to his conduct in the trial, and had reported that no ground existed for proceeding against the Bishop in the Ecclesiastical courts.

Prior to the ordination of Dr. Irvine in the Russian Church, Archbishop Tikhon had communicated to the Presiding Bishop of the American Church, his intention to take such action. A reply had been made by the Presiding Bishop in which the latter presented friendly protests on behalf of the American Church against the proceeding. Notwithstanding that protest, the ceremony took place in the American Cathedral of the Russian Church in New York on November 5th. Dr. Irvine had a few days previously been ordained to the diaconate and was advanced to the priesthood on the date mentioned.

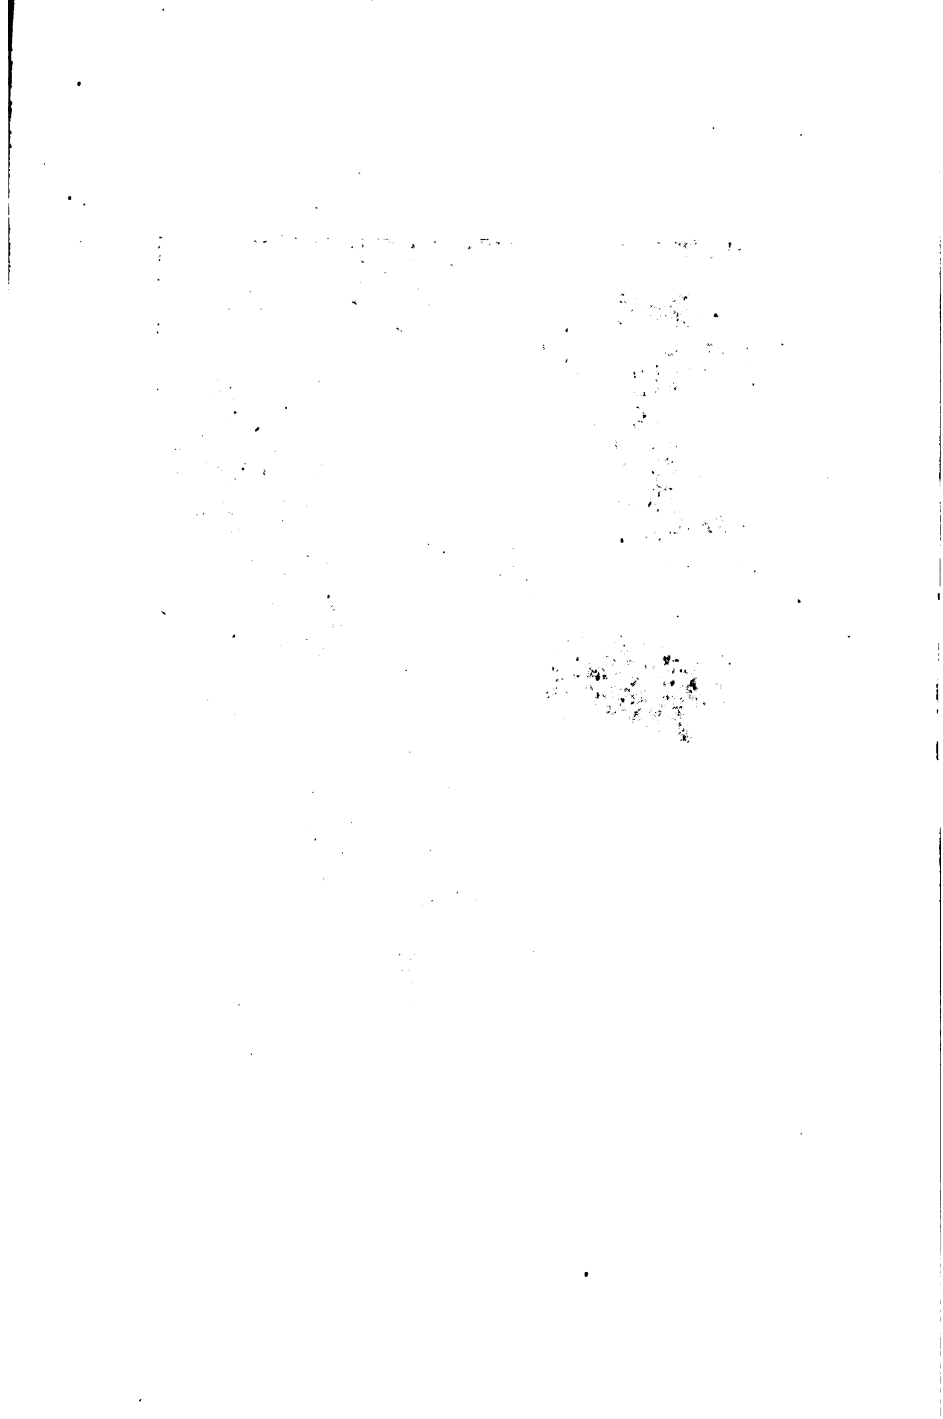

The action of the Russian Archbishop was greatly deplored by American Churchmen, the Bishop of Fond du Lac being among those who had telegraphed vigorous protests, prior to the action. It should be said that Archbishop Tikhon disclaimed any intention of placing discredit on the orders conferred in the American Church upon Dr. Irvine, but maintained that since he had been deposed by the canonical action of his Bishop in the American Church, he was no longer a minister of that Church and might, therefore, be received into the jurisdiction of the Russian Church...

The New York Catholic Club unanimously declared the re-ordination to be "a sacrilege and a scandal," and in the Church papers there was extended condemnation. On November 30th, 1905, the Presiding Bishop addressed to the Metropolitan of St. Petersburg, as presiding member of the Russian Holy Governing Synod, a communication calling his attention to the action of Archbishop Tikhon, which he said was proceeded with "in spite of friendly letters of protest and remonstrance from myself and other Bishops of our Church." The Presiding Bishop further said of that action: "The public setting at naught both of our Discipline and of our Orders cannot but have an injurious effect upon the relations of the Holy Orthodox Church with our American Church, and, it is not unreasonable to think, with the whole Anglican communion. In this light I respectfully call the attention of your Grace and that of the Holy Governing Synod to the matter, for I have thought perhaps in the general estimation the authorities of the Russian Church and not any individual alone will be regarded as responsible."

In the Greek periodical Ἑνωσις Ἐκκλησιῶν (quoted by the Jerusalem correspondent of the London Guardian), the action of the Russian Ecclesiastical authorities is condemned, and it is stated that "this incident has nothing to do with the friendship and feeling of the Greek Autocephalous Churches toward the Anglican Churches and their Holy Orders; no Eastern Orthodox Autocephalous Church, Greek or Roumanian, or Servian, or Montenegrin, or Austrian, except the Russian, would approve this untimely act of the Russian Archbishop in America."

SAN DOMINGO.

A request that services of this Church be established in Puerto Plata in the Dominican Republic or San Domingo, was submitted to the Presiding Bishop in October 1905, and was by him referred to the Bishop of Porto Rico with a commission to visit that place and take such measures in reference to the request as might seem to him desirable.

Bishop of Oregon, was born in Toronto, Ontario, November 25th, 1861, and was graduated at Trinity College, Toronto, in 1885, in which year he was ordained deacon and in the year following priest, both by the Bishop of Toronto. He was assistant at S. George's Church, New York City, from 1886 to 1890; rector of Christ Church, Middletown, N. Y., from 1890 to 1891; rector of Trinity Church, Toledo, Ohio, 1891 to 1896, and rector of Emmanuel Church, La Grange, Ill., from 1896 to 1906. He was selected as Deputation lecturer for the London S. P. G. on "The Church in the United States," and excited a great deal of interest in London, showing lantern slides of the progress of missions in this country. Bishop Scadding is also largely known throughout the Church in connection with similar lectures in this country. Although born in Canada, he has been an American citizen ever since his ordination, and his entire ministry has been spent in this country. Bishop Anderson of Chicago and Bishop Brent of the Philippine Islands were his classmates at college. He is the author of Direct Answers to Plain Questions, a handbook for American Churchmen; Dost Thou Believe? A Workable Graded System of Sunday School Instruction, and several tracts.

He was elected Bishop of Oregon in June 1906, and was consecrated in his parish church at La Grange on the festival of S. Michael and All Angels, September 29th, 1906, by the Presiding Bishop, assisted by the Bishops of New York, Ohio, Chicago (who preached the sermon), Springfield, Pittsburgh, Minnesota, Michigan City, Quincy, Olympia, Arkansas, and the Coadjutors of Springfield and Western Michigan.

SEABURY SOCIETY.

In a statement made by the trustees in December, it was set forth as the aim of the Society to hold Vacation Conferences during the summer in such places as might be determined upon, to work for Church extension in suburbs of cities, to form Seabury bands of men competent to speak on the missions of the Church, to hold annual missionary councils, and to establish a school for the training of lay workers. A Vacation Conference was held during the summer at Northampton, Mass., and was attended by a considerable number of Churchmen, unfavorable weather making the attendance less than was hoped for. There was also a missionary conference of laymen held in Louisville. In New York some sixty men have been trained for different phases of Church work and it was stated that some of these could be sent to other cities as leaders in such work if so desired. It was hoped that a Seabury Correspondence School might be developed with headquarters in New York.

SOUTHERN VIRGINIA, DIOCESE OF.

The election of a Coadjutor being requested by the Bishop, there was chosen at a special Council in November 1905, the Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, D.D., Secretary of the Board of Missions. Dr. Lloyd declined the election, and at the annual Council in May 1906, there was chosen the Rev. BEVERLY D. TUCKER, D.D., who was elected on the fifth ballot. The several ballots were as follows:

TUCKER, RIGHT REV. BEVERLY DANDRIDGE, D.D.,

Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Virginia, was born in Richmond, Va., November 9th, 1847, his parents being Beverley and Jane (Ellis) Tucker. His family is an ancient one and occupies an honorable place in the history of the Old Dominion. He was educated in this country, Canada, and Europe. It was in England that the progress of his studies were interrupted by the outbreak of the Civil War. Although a mere boy and merely big enough to bear a musket, he returned to his native state and took up arms in the service of the Confederacy. Peace restored, he again took up his studies, and was ordained at the Virginia Theological Seminary in 1873, and in that year he married a daughter of John Augustine and Eleanor Selden Washington. The Washingtons lived at Mount Vernon, but the marriage occurred in Charlestown, W. Va.

After brief but successful rectorships at other churches, the young clergyman went to Norfolk as rector of S. Paul's, about a quarter of a century ago.

He is chaplain to the Pickett-Buchanan Camp, Confederate Veterans, and of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia, and is at this time a member of the staff of General Stith Bolling. He is a poet of considerable power.

Thirteen children have been born to Bishop and Mrs. Tucker. One of their sons is the Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, who is president of S. Paul's College in Tokyo, Japan, and another is now at Oxford University, having won a Cecil Rhodes' scholarship in that institution. One of their daughters is the wife of the Rev. Luke M. White of Pulaski, Vermont.

Bishop Tucker received the degree of D.D. from Roanoke College in 1894. He was elected Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Virginia on May 30th, 1906, and was consecrated in S. Paul's Church, Norfolk, on October 3rd, 1906, by the Bishops of Southern Virginia, West Virginia, Virginia, and the Bishop Coadjutor of West Virginia.

WASHINGTON, DIOCESE OF.

The happy information was given on the morning of Thanksgiving Day, 1905, that the Bishop had received the full amount necessary in order that the offered gift of $50,000 for the payment of the debt on the Cathedral might be accepted, and that those capacious grounds are therefore free of all debt. The Book of Remembrance, which is now closed, contains the names of those who have made any contribution for this work, and it will be preserved among the treasures of the Cathedral.

WEBB, RIGHT REV. WILLIAM WALTER, D.D.,

Bishop of Milwaukee, was born in Germantown, Philadelphia, November 20th, 1857. He is the son of William Hewitt and Esther Odin (Dorr) Webb, and the grandson of the Rev. Dr. Dorr, who was for many years rector of Christ Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Webb's father was vice-president of the Reading Railroad. After an earlier education received at the Episcopal Academy of Philadelphia, the present Bishop entered the University of Pennsylvania, taking a scientific course, but before graduation determined that he would take Holy Orders. He therefore entered Trinity College, from whence he took the degrees of A.B. and B.S. in 1882 and A.M. in 1885. In the latter year he was graduated also at the Berkeley Divinity School. His degree of D.D. was received from Nashotah in 1897. He was ordained deacon in 1885 by the present Bishop of New Hampshire, and priest a year later by the late Bishop Williams of Connecticut. His diaconate was spent as assistant at Trinity Church, Middletown, Conn., after which, from 1886 till 1889, he was assistant to the late Dr. Percival at the Church of the Evangelists, Philadelphia. He was rector of S. Elisabeth's Church, Philadelphia, 1889-92. It was in the latter year that he came to Nashotah as professor of Dogmatic Theology, and he was elevated to the presidency of Nashotah House in 1897. Dr. Webb is the author of The Cure of Souls and A Guide to Seminarians, as also of one of the papers in the volume The Incarnation and Other Essays, published under the auspices of the Clerical Union; also of An Index to Electrolysis published in 1882.

He was elected Bishop Coadjutor of Milwaukee on November 21st, 1905, and was consecrated in All Saints' Cathedral on the Feast of S. Matthias, February 24th, 1906. The Bishop of Milwaukee was consecrator, assisted by the Bishops of Fond du Lac and Michigan City. The sermon was preached by the Bishop of Chicago. The candidate was presented by the Bishops Coadjutor of Springfield and Nebraska. The Bishop Coadjutor of Fond du Lac and the Bishop of Quincy were also present and assisted in the laying on of hands. The attending presbyters were the Rev. H. D. Robinson, D.D., warden of Racine College Grammar School, and the Rev. William McGarvey, D.D., rector of S. Elisabeth's Church, Philadelphia. He succeeded the Rt. Rev. Isaac Lea Nicholson, D.D., as Bishop of Milwaukee, on the death of the latter, October 29, 1906.

WESTERN MICHIGAN, DIOCESE OF.

At the request of the Bishop, the diocese entered into the election of a Bishop Coadjutor at a special Convention in December 1905. On the first formal ballot, the Rev. JOHN NEWTON MCCORMICK, D.D., was elected almost unanimously, the vote being as follows:

Bishop of Michigan, was born in Bellevue, Ohio, on July 30, 1860. His collegiate education was received at Kenyon College, from which he graduated in 1880 with the degree of A. B., receiving in 1894 that of A.M., in 1898 that of D.D., and in 1906, L.H.D. He was ordained deacon in 1883 by Bishop Bedell, and served his diaconate as assistant at Trinity Church, Columbus, Ohio. Advanced to the priesthood in 1884 by Bishop Jaggard, he assumed charge of churches at Fernbank and Riverside, suburbs of Cincinnati, which charges he held until 1889. He then became rector of S. Paul's Church, Steubenville, Ohio, and in 1893 entered upon the position of Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Cleveland. He was also at the time of his election to the episcopate a member of the Standing Committee of the diocese of Ohio, and had been deputy from that diocese to several General Conventions.

He was elected Bishop of Michigan at the annual convention in November, 1905, and was consecrated in S. Paul's Church, Cleveland, on February 7th, 1906. VI. General Clergy Relief Fund. "The Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen and of Aged, Infirm, and Disabled Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America."

The official, general Society for Pension and Relief.

The General Convention recommends Quinquagesima Sunday for an annual offering from each church; that a percentage of the Communion alms be given to this fund; that it be remembered in legacies, bequests, and wills; and gives it the royalty on the Hymnal.

This fund systematically secures and pays out pensions and annuities to over 450 persons (clergy, widows, and orphans, the family unit) "upon the basis of need and character alone," without regard to age, Diocese, or payment of premium. The By-Laws of 1859 and canons provide for Automatic Pension at 64 upon designation of offerings. It is the only pension and relief fund of over fifty Dioceses merged with it.

Annual subscriptions earnestly solicited. All churches and clergy should be on the records. Remember the fund by legacies and bequests in wills.

Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ."—Eph. iv. 11, 12, 13.

 FAIRBURN, J., Chicago to Ottawa.
 FUGARD, R. C., Duluth to [Wales].

Diocesan Statistics and Clergy List.

The statistics of each Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction have been compiled in nearly every case, from the official statistics given in their respective journals, and the sheets have been revised by the Bishops or Secretaries of the Dioceses, to the latest moment possible. The numbers following the name of Parish, indicate the reported number of Communicants therein. The Clergy will confer a favor by forwarding corrections to be made in the next issue of THE LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL promptly to the office of THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN CO., 412 Milwaukee Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Titles of Institutions enclosed in quotation marks, are those of legal corporations.

Arrangement of Parochial Lists.

Each clergyman's name appears ONCE under the head either of "Parishes, Missions and Clergy," or "Non-Parochial Clergy," in the Diocese with which he is canonically connected. Where one of his cures is also his P. O. address, his name will there be found. If he has no cure at his P. O. address, his name will appear at his cure, with his P. O. in parentheses. Lesser points ministered to by the same clergyman will have references in italics to his main cure. Thus:

"Athens, S. Timothy's (23), r. New Decatur."

This reference in italics indicates that the rector of New Decatur is in charge of S. Timothy's, Athens. His name will be found by looking at "New Decatur." This obviates the delays, expense, and annoyance of sending mail matter for the rector of New Decatur, to his lesser cure at Athens.

Where the P. O. is not the same as the principal cure, it is designated thus:

Opelika, Emmanuel, T. J. Beard, D.D. (Birmingham).

This shows that the missionary at Opelika resides at Birmingham, but has no charge in the latter city.

This method has the advantage of showing at a glance the correct P. O. address of each of the clergy in any given Diocese, and also shows which is the principal, and which a lesser, charge of any one clergyman.

r.=rector; m.=minister, missionary; loc. ten.=locum tenens; rec. emer.=rector emeritus; off.=officiating; cur.=curate. Names in italics (found only in certain Missionary Districts, as Alaska) are those of lay workers.

Panama Canal Zone.

The territory embraced within the Panama Canal Zone has heretofore been a part of the English Colonial Diocese of Honduras, and mission stations have been maintained at Panama and at Colon. Arrangements have now been made between the American Church, through the Presiding Bishop and the English Church, through the Bishop of Honduras and the Archbishop of the West Indies, to transfer all work in that territory to the jurisdiction of the American Church. The Presiding Bishop has appointed the Bishop of Washington as his commissary to administer the Church in that region. The appointment of an American presbyter, to be nominated by the Bishop of Honduras through the Bishop of Washington, is to be made.

The Canonical Church Register.

The attention of the parochial clergy is particularly called to the Canonical Church Register.

Every Parish or Mission needs, and in fact is required by Canon, to keep a Parish Register. For many years the smaller parishes in particular were badly handicapped on account of the high price that was placed on these books. But since the

was put on the market, this difficulty was overcome, and, as it is made in several sizes, the price is within reach of all.

The Register is compiled with strict reference to the Canons of the Church in the United States, handsomely ruled, high grade of paper, the very best of binding, and will open and lie flat at any page.

AA—Arranged for 200 Communicants, with appendix for List of Families, 8 x 10 inches. Net, $1.75; by express, $1.95.

A—Exactly double the size of AA, 16 x 10½ inches. Half leather. Net, $3.00; by express, $3.50.

B—Without "Marriages." Space for 920 communicants, with appendix for List of Families. Half leather. Net, $5.50; express charges additional.

C—Without "Marriages" and "Families." Space for 2,120 communicants. Half leather. Net, $8.00; express charges additional.

APPENDIX TO CANONICAL CHURCH REGISTER—Contains List of Families only. 200 pages. Half leather. Net, $3.00; by express, $3.50.

The Canons also require a record of Marriages to be kept. These pages are included in the CANONICAL CHURCH REGISTER editions AA and A, but not in the larger books. For this purpose the should be used. It is made in two sizes:

AA—Uniform in size with Canonical Church Register AA. Space for recording 170 marriages. Net, $1.75; by express, $1.95.

A—Exactly double the size of AA, 16 x 10½ inches. Half leather. Net, $3.00; by express, $3.50.

OUR productions occupy a distinguished place among fine, modern windows. The figures have humane interest, the color harmony shows masterful conception, and the design as a whole possesses devotional beauty of distinct, spiritual values. ¶ A wonderful improvement in old churches. Cost is less than is popularly supposed. ¶ We submit water-colored designs, photographs, estimates, and refer you to examples of our work on request. ¶ Medals and Honors at Columbian, Californian Midwinter and Trans-Mississippi Expositions and Grand Prize, Highest award, Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

PIANOS
 PIPE ORGANS
 REED ORGANS
 SELF-PLAYING
 INSTRUMENTS

Two Manual Pedal—Bass Liszt Organ.

Style 802.

A noble instrument, very complete in its appointments. Decidedly superior to small pipe organs of equal cost, and unquestionably the most perfect instrument of its class.

The MASON & HAMLIN LISZT organs differ materially from all other reed organs, being on a larger scale, employing larger and different reeds, tubes, tube-boards, and other parts, and producing not only a richer quality but a greater body of tone. Xaver Scharwenka said of them, "No other instrument so enraptures the player." Gaston M. Dethier, Organist of St. Francis Xavier's Church, New York City, wrote: "Playing the LISZT organ is to me like interpreting a Mozart Sonata, and when speaking of that organ it seems that I hear yet the exquisite sweetness of its tone." The great Organist, Edwin H. Lemare, says: "Personally it gives me far greater pleasure to play on one of these organs than on a small pipe organ, the reeds are so perfectly voiced, and of course remain in perfect tune, and the orchestral effects, etc., one can get, seem endless." Saint-Saens, Guilmant, Joachim, Nikisch, Thomas, Paur, Seidl, and scores of other distinguished musicians have voiced a like opinion.

Send for our general catalogue, describing organs of all sizes.

It is invaluable to an intending purchaser.

Communion Wines

The late Bishop Isaac Lea Nicholson of Milwaukee wrote about our COMMUNION WINES in the Church Times, December, 1894, under the Bishop's Column as follows: "Inquiry is frequently made in regard to good and reliable material, BREAD AND WINE, for Holy Communion purposes. The new Canon of the Diocese, and its special wording covering this important matter, is having its excellent and evident effect. We can particularly and after personal inquiry and investigation recommend the preparation of the E. POMMER ^{Y. 4-2 e te} Milwaukee, Wis. The Malvoisie Wine, sold by this most reputable firm—who make a specialty of Communion Wines—is one which the clergy can depend upon, with entire safety.

"It is a light, medium, sweet, CALIFORNIA WINE, moderate in price, containing only the pure juice of the grape. The Lutherans, the Roman Catholics, and our own Church people—those religious bodies who pay the strictest attention to this very weighty subject—largely patronize the materials prepared by this Company, and all unite in recommending it."

The MALVOISIE GRAPE WINE is also recommended by the following noted Milwaukee physicians: J. F. JERMAIN, M.D., Professor of Medicine in Wisconsin College of Physicians and Surgeons; DR. HENRY HARDER, Instructor in Surgery and Assistant Surgeon, Milwaukee Medical College; DR. A. MOELLER; DR. FRED R. WEBER; DR. WM. JOBSE; DR. JULIUS BRUESS.

PRICE Per 5-gallon keg $7.50; per 10-gallon keg $14.00; per 14-bottle case $5.00; per 25-bottle case $10.00.

but also make a specialty of Superb Pipe Organs for Churches with Moderate Means, who cannot afford grand, imposing and costly organs and who have hitherto been obliged to content themselves with unsatisfactory substitutes for Pipe Organs.

We have on file hundreds of letters similar to the following, which refers to one of our smaller regular styles:

ORANGEBURG, S. C., June 27, 1904.

HINNERS ORGAN CO., Pekin, Ill.

GENTLEMEN:—The one-manual pipe organ recently built for us by your firm is giving great satisfaction. In many respects it is a remarkable instrument. Within a small compass you have placed 310 pipes of full scale and of the tone essential to a complete organ. Each register has a striking individuality of speech and in the ENSEMBLE, the blending is very fine. The bass is so heavy and deep it can be felt all over the church.

I have heard two-manual organs double the size and cost of this, which had no greater variety or volume of tone. For $700 you have provided us with an instrument of splendid tone and sufficient power for any church of medium size.

Sincerely yours,

T. TRACY WALSH, Rector,

WHITTAKER'S SERIES OF SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSONS

(JOINT DIOCESAN SYSTEM)

THE NEW TOPIC

Bible Characters The New Testament

This topic will begin at Advent and continue until Whitsunday. Selections from the Gospels for all grades of pupils, from the primary school to the Bible Class. The Whittaker Series includes "The Picture Lessons," "The Lesson Book," "The Bible-Class Manual," and "The Teacher's Assistant." These four publications are edited by the Rev. Dr. Shinn. They are free from partizanship and can be used in any parish. No system of instruction has been so generally accepted as this throughout the Church, and no substitute has as yet been found. Some of the best schools in the land use these graded lessons. When convenience, thoroughness, attractiveness, and economy are considered they are found to be satisfactory.

SEVEN REASONS WHY THEY ARE THE BEST:

1. The Lessons are studied every week by more than 300,000 children in our Sunday Schools, three-quarters of the total number.
2. They give a UNIFORM series of lessons for Sunday study throughout the Church.
3. The scheme is heartily endorsed by nearly all the Bishops and Diocesan S. S. Committees.
4. The periodicals published in connection with the lessons are properly graded and adapted to the various ages of the scholars.
5. The subjects of the lessons, for the sake of variety and interest, are arranged in three or six months' courses.
6. The cost per annum is much less than any other system that gives a full year's course.
7. The helps for the teachers are carefully prepared, and aid directly in the teaching of the lessons.

The Southern Churchman

A FAMILY CHURCH PAPER.

Published by The Southern Churchman Co., Richmond, Va.

Two Dollars a Year. To Clergymen, One Dollar a Year.

The Southern Churchman is the oldest Church paper in the United States, having been published continuously for seventy years under the name it now bears.

It gives all the important news of the Church at large and of the various Dioceses.

Its Family and Children's Departments are filled with bright, entertaining, and instructive reading matter, making it a welcome visitor to old and young in the household.

Its Motto: "Catholic for every truth of God; Protestant against every error of man."

It is courteous and fair in its statements and criticisms; conservative in its principles, not recognizing any faction in the Church, but gladly conceding the sincerity of those whose views of Church administration differ from its own, holding them as brethren in the Lord and of the same Household of Faith.

Its Churchmanship is that of the Prayer Book, as interpreted by the use of the American Church.

The Southern Churchman will be glad to receive and publish news of Church work from any part of the country.

Books to Koep Before the People

The YOUNG CHURCHMAN Co. has published some of the most valuable books on Church Doctrine and kindred subjects that have been issued from the American press.

These Books will never grow old, because the matter is always ALIVE, and Churchmen need to read them as a stimulus to stronger Churchmanship, and non-Churchmen should read them so as to be set right as to the Catholic position of the American Church.

REASONS FOR BEING A CHURCHMAN

Addressed to English-speaking Christians of every name. By ARTHUR W.

LITTLE, D.D., rector of S. Mark's Church, Evanston. Revised Edition.

Price, $1.25; by mail, $1.35.

Probably the majority of the men of this Church who are interested in presenting the claims of the Church to those outside her pale, have at least heard of this book; and equally probably, the major part of them have read it. So far as this reviewer knows, no book of this character and on these lines has had a wider circulation than the one before us; and a proof of its usefulness, as well as its popularity, is the large numbers of the book that have been sold. Dr. Little begins with the question, "Did God Found a Church which still exists?" and from this starting point, goes over the whole subject thoroughly and exhaustively and states the claims of the Church just as strongly as it is possible to state them. It would be hard to recall a single legitimate argument which the author does not use; and he furnishes a storehouse of facts and data and arguments for those who are interested in this subject.

We know of no book of this kind that can serve its purpose so thoroughly and efficiently as does Dr. Little's Reasons for Being a Churchman. Certainly the doctor has very strong reasons, and he states them with clearness, vigor, and perspicacity.—Southern Churchman.

WHY AND WHEREFORE

Simple Explanations of the Ornaments, Vestments, and Ritual of the Church.

By the Rev. HARRY WILSON, M.A. Adapted to the Use and Customs of the American Church. Cloth, 25 cents net. Postage 5 cents.

CONTENT: I.—Ritual; Christian Symbols. II.—Bowing and Genuflecting. III.—The Altar and Its Coverings. IV.—The Sign of the Cross; The Seven Lamps. V.—The Cross and the Crucifix. VI.—Vestments (1) Surplice, Stole, etc. VII.—Vestments (2) Chasuble, Alb, etc. VIII.—The Sanctus Bell; The Lavabo. IX.—Incense. X.—Wafer Bread; The Mixed Chalice. XI.—Altar Lights and Flowers; The Ablutions. XII.—The Eastward Position; Festivals. XIII.—The Word "Mass."

A small volume, giving simple explanations of the ornaments, vestments, and ritual of the Church, is by Rev. H. Wilson, M.A. It is aptly called Why and Wherefore, and answers the need it designs to meet with excellent clearness and simplicity. It is a deplorable fact that many who have been life-long participants in the frequent services of the Church are absolutely ignorant on the subject of her ritual, and to these the information conveyed by means of this little work should be most welcome. It has been charged by the denominations that our Church people render a meaningless worship; that they lack the color and fervor in devotions which mark some of the sects; and when they find that the simplest observations of the Church convey nothing to her sons and daughters, it is not strange that the charge should be made. By all means we should welcome any means of preserving the honor of those observances.—American Sunday School Magazine.

COME HOME!

An Appeal on Behalf of Reunion. By the Rev. JOHN LANGTRY, D.C.L., late Rural Dean of Toronto. $1.25; by mail, $1.35.

Dr. Lantry's earnest plea for separated Christians to "Come home" has a pathetic interest now, as the learned and pious author died recently.

We have wealthy men and women who furnish funds to disseminate Broad Church literature, and others who circulate Swedenborgian works and "Christian Science" books by the thousands. Dr. Langtry's book would be a blessed boon to the denominational ministers, and do much to make them understand the basis of reunion in the true Catholic Church. Would that Churchmen saw the opportunity and place copies wherever it would be read. Buy one copy and read it, and then give it away, and so do a little to carry on the work for which Dr. Langtry pleaded.

CATHOLIC PRINCIPLES

As illustrated in the Doctrine, History, and Organization of the American Catholic Church in the United States, commonly called the Protestant Episcopal Church. By the Rev. FRANK N. WESTCOTT. Handsomely bound in cloth, 412 pages, $1.25, postage 10 cents; paper covers, 40 cents, postage 7 cents.

This is a book for Churchmen to read, and one that will be found most helpful. A Prominent Layman, in a private letter, writes:

"It is one of the best books I ever read. His style is crisp and fresh, and his arguments are unanswerable. Everybody reading it, whether they like it or not, will find that it leaves a pleasant impression, and is stimulating to the most thoughtless Churchman."

THE HEART OF CATHOLICITY

By the Rev. FRANK N. WESTCOTT, author of Catholic Principles. Cloth, $1.00 net; postage 10 cents.

Catholic Principles is of necessity a controversial volume, dealing as it does, with the issues between the Church on the one hand and Protestant and Roman Christianity on the other. The author's object in publishing this companion volume is to show that the Heart of Catholicity is not controversy nor disputation, but a system of life, of faith, and of works, according to the leading of divine revelation. It is strong, healthful, and encouraging, and the laity should read it; and the clergy will find it full of sermon suggestions.

Vibratory Stimulation

AND EXERCISE

VIBRATORY STIMULATION is one of the most valuable remedies for the treatment of diseases not caused by germs or bacteria and possesses all elements necessary for the restoration and preservation of health and the proper development of natural strength and grace.

The vibratory stimulation afforded by the FORTIER ELECTRICAL EXERCISER is internal as well as superficial, caused by the electric current passing through the body, which brings about chemical and mechanical action, favorably effecting the tissues and affording at the same time a mild form of exercise, essential for carrying off accumulated waste matter, thus eliminating what is usually the primary cause of physical ailments and general break-downs.

The electrical vibratory stimulation, received from the "FORTIER," being both internal and superficial, is infinitely more effective than the mere vibrations on the skin and superficial muscles, resulting from the use of mechanical devices.

The use of the "FORTIER" for only a few minutes daily in your home or office, exerts a positive and lasting influence on the development of the muscular and nervous systems, without causing the least fatigue and is adapted to the needs of men, women and children.
